GUESS?, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
August 3, 2024
(unaudited)

(1) Basis of Presentation

Description of the Business

Guess?, Inc. (the “Company” or “GUESS?”) designs, markets, distributes and licenses a leading lifestyle collection of contemporary apparel and accessories for women, men and children that reflect the American lifestyle and European fashion sensibilities. The Company’s designs are sold in GUESS? owned stores, to a network of wholesale accounts that includes better department stores, selected specialty retailers and upscale boutiques and through the Internet. GUESS? branded products, some of which are produced under license, are also sold internationally through a series of retail store licensees and wholesale distributors. On April 2, 2024, the Company acquired all the operating assets and a 50% interest in the intellectual property assets of New York-based fashion brand rag & bone, a leader in the American fashion scene, which directly operates stores in the U.S. and in the U.K., and is also available in high-end boutiques, department stores and through e-commerce globally.

Reclassifications

The Company has made certain reclassifications to prior period amounts to conform to the current period presentation within the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements and notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements.

Interim Financial Statements

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company contain all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary for a fair presentation of the condensed consolidated balance sheets as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, and the condensed consolidated statements of income (loss), comprehensive income (loss), cash flows and stockholders’ equity for the three and six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023. The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (“GAAP”) for interim financial information and the instructions to Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). Accordingly, they have been condensed and do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. The results of operations and cash flows for the three and six months ended August 3, 2024 are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations to be expected for the full fiscal year.

These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended February 3, 2024.

Fiscal Periods

The Company operates on a 52/53-week fiscal year calendar, which ends on the Saturday nearest to January 31 of each year. The three and six months ended August 3, 2024 had the same number of days as the three and six months ended July 29, 2023. All references herein to “fiscal 2025”, “fiscal 2024” and “fiscal 2023” represent the results of the 52-week fiscal year ending February 1, 2025, the 53-week fiscal year ended February 3, 2024 and the 52-week fiscal year ended January 28, 2023, respectively.

Business Update, Market Trends and Uncertainties

Macroeconomic conditions, including declines in consumer spending, inflation, higher interest rates, foreign exchange rate fluctuations and the impact of the ongoing wars in Ukraine and Gaza are continuing to negatively impact the Company’s businesses.

The Company continues to carefully monitor global and regional developments and respond appropriately. The Company also continues to strategically manage expenses in order to protect profitability and mitigate, to the extent possible, the residual effect of supply chain disruptions, including the Red Sea crisis. The duration and scope of these conditions cannot be predicted, and therefore, any anticipated negative financial impact to the Company's operating results cannot be reasonably estimated.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accounting policies of the Company are set forth in further detail in Note 1 to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements contained in the Company's fiscal 2024 Annual Report on Form 10-K. The Company includes herein certain updates to those policies.

Cash, Cash Equivalents and Restricted Cash

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and marketable securities with original maturities of three months or less. The Company's restricted cash is held for future payment of a special cash dividend declared in March 2024 as nonvested restricted stock awards vest.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and disclosed in the accompanying notes. Significant areas requiring the use of management estimates relate to the allowances for doubtful accounts, sales return and markdown allowances, valuation of inventories, share-based compensation, income taxes, recoverability of deferred income taxes, unrecognized income tax benefits, the useful life of assets for depreciation and amortization, evaluation of asset impairment (including goodwill and long-lived assets, such as property and equipment and operating lease right-of-use ("ROU") assets), pension obligations, workers' compensation and medical self-insurance expense and accruals, litigation reserves, restructuring expense and accruals, convertible senior notes and accounting for business combinations. These estimates and assumptions may change as a result of the impact of global economic conditions, such as the uncertainty regarding the impact of the ongoing wars in Ukraine and Gaza, global inflationary pressures, volatility in foreign exchange rates and declining consumer spending. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Revisions in estimates could materially impact the results of operations and financial position.

The Company's operations could be impacted in ways the Company is not able to predict today. While the Company believes it has made reasonable accounting estimates based on the facts and circumstances that were available as of the reporting date, to the extent there are differences between these estimates and actual results, the Company's results of operations and financial position could be materially impacted.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes the majority of its revenue from its direct-to-consumer (brick-and-mortar retail stores and concessions as well as e-commerce) and wholesale distribution channels at a point in time when it satisfies a performance obligation and transfers control of the product to the respective customer.

The Company also recognizes royalty revenue from its trademark license agreements. The Company's trademark license agreements represent symbolic licenses that are dependent on the Company's continued support over the term of the license agreement. The amount of revenue that is recognized from the licensing arrangements is based on sales-based royalty and advertising fund contributions as well as specific fixed payments, where applicable. The Company's trademark license agreements customarily provide for a multi-year initial term ranging from three to fifteen years and may contain options to renew prior to expiration for an additional multi-year period. The unrecognized portion of upfront payments is included in deferred royalties in accrued expenses and other long-term liabilities depending on the short or long-term nature of the payments to be recognized. As of August 3, 2024, the Company had $14.8 million and $36.8 million of deferred royalties related to these upfront payments included in accrued expenses and other current liabilities and other long-term liabilities, respectively. This compares to $5.0 million and $14.8 million of deferred royalties related to these upfront payments included in accrued expenses and other current liabilities and other long-term liabilities, respectively, as of February 3, 2024. During the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, the Company recognized $4.3 million and $8.8 million in net royalties, respectively, related to the amortization of deferred royalties. During the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, the Company recognized $3.6 million and $7.2 million in net royalties, respectively, related to the amortization of deferred royalties.

Refer to Note 9 for further information on disaggregation of revenue by segment and country.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

In the normal course of business, the Company grants credit directly to certain wholesale customers after a credit analysis is performed based on financial and other criteria. Accounts receivable are recorded net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company maintains allowances for doubtful accounts for estimated losses that may result from the inability of its wholesale customers and licensing partners to make their required payments. The Company bases its allowances on analysis of the aging of accounts receivable at the date of the financial statements, assessments of historical and current collection trends, evaluation of the impact of current and future forecasted economic conditions and whether the Company has obtained credit insurance or other guarantees. Management performs regular evaluations concerning the ability of its customers to make required payments and records a provision for doubtful accounts based on these evaluations.

As of August 3, 2024, approximately 46% of the Company's total net trade accounts receivable and 65% of its European net trade receivables were subject to credit insurance coverage, certain bank guarantees or letters of credit for collection purposes. The Company's credit insurance coverage contains certain terms and conditions specifying deductibles and annual claim limits. Management evaluates the creditworthiness of the counterparties to the credit insurance, bank guarantees and letters of credit and records a provision for the risk of loss on these instruments based on these evaluations as considered necessary.

The Company's credit losses for the periods presented were not significant compared to sales and did not significantly exceed management's estimates. Refer to Note 6 for further information on the Company's allowance for doubtful accounts.

Recently Adopted Accounting Guidance

Common Control Arrangements

In March 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued authoritative guidance to amend certain provisions of Accounting Standards Codification 842 that apply to arrangements between related parties under common control. The amendment requires leasehold improvements associated with common control leases to be amortized over the useful life to the common control group, and requires certain disclosures when the lease term is shorter than the useful life of the asset. This Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, including interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company adopted this guidance during the three months ended May 4, 2024, which had no material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Recently Issued Accounting Guidance

Joint Venture Formations

In August 2023, the FASB issued authoritative guidance regarding the initial measurement of joint ventures. Upon formation, a joint venture is required to recognize and initially measure its assets and liabilities at fair value. The new guidance is applicable to joint ventures with a formation date on or after January 1, 2025. Early adoption and retrospective application of the amendments are permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements.

Segment Reporting

In November 2023, the FASB issued authoritative guidance which modifies the disclosure requirements of reportable segments. This guidance is designed to improve reportable segment disclosure requirements, primarily through enhanced disclosures of significant segment expenses. This ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and for interim periods beginning after December 15, 2024. The Company is currently evaluating the impact this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements.

Income Tax Disclosures

In December 2023, the FASB issued authoritative guidance to enhance the transparency and decision usefulness of income tax disclosures. The additional disclosures required by this update are related to the effective tax rate reconciliation and income taxes paid by jurisdiction. This ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2024. The Company is currently evaluating the impact this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements.

(2) Acquisition of rag & bone

On April 2, 2024, the Company completed the acquisition of the operating assets and liabilities of rag & bone, a lifestyle and apparel fashion brand. This included the direct operation of 34 stores in the U.S. and two stores in the U.K. Concurrent with the closing of the acquisition, (i) a joint venture owned 50% by each of the Company and global management firm WHP Global (the “Joint Venture”) acquired rag & bone’s intellectual property and (ii) the Company, through Guess Europe Sagl, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into an Intellectual Property License Agreement (the “License Agreement”) with the Joint Venture granting the Company the exclusive right to use rag & bone intellectual property to manufacture licensed products worldwide and to sell licensed products in specified territories in exchange for payment of royalty fees by the Company to the Joint Venture.

The Company paid total cash consideration of approximately $57.1 million at closing for both the operating assets and its 50% interest in the licensing assets. In addition, there is potential for incremental earnout consideration to the sellers, of which the Company could be responsible for a maximum of $12.8 million, based on preset levels of sales and EBITDA performance of the rag & bone operations in its fiscal year ending January 4, 2025. The Company recorded a $2.0 million payable with respect to the potential earnout payment during the quarter ended May 4, 2024 based on its assessment of the fair value measurement of such earnout as of April 2, 2024. There was no material change in the assessed fair value of the potential earnout as of August 3, 2024.

The transaction is intended to provide the following strategic and financial benefits:

- Leverage the Company’s powerful infrastructure to accelerate rag & bone growth and drive synergies;
- Expand the Company’s global lifestyle brand portfolio with the rag & bone brand, allowing the Company to reach a very attractive customer base that is complimentary to that of the Guess and Marciano brands.

Purchase Price Allocation

The rag & bone acquisition was accounted for as a business combination in accordance with ASC Topic 805. Consistent with ASC Topic 805, rag & bone was consolidated into the Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements starting on the acquisition date. Under the acquisition method, the Company records the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed at their respective fair values on the acquisition date. There are various estimates and judgments related to the valuation of identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. These estimates and judgments have the potential to materially impact the Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements.

The purchase price allocation as of the acquisition date was based on a preliminary valuation and is subject to change as more detailed analyses are completed and additional information about the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed becomes available. For the three months ended August 3, 2024, purchase price allocation adjustments were immaterial. The purchase price consideration was allocated to assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their respective fair values as follows (in thousands):

	Apr 2, 2024
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 2,083
Accounts receivable	23,582
Inventory	52,105
Other current assets	10,900
Total current assets	88,670
Property and equipment	12,605
Operating lease right-of-use assets	38,821
Other assets	61,840
Total assets acquired	$ 201,936
Accounts payable	$ 23,752
Accrued expenses	11,923
Current portion of operating lease liabilities	16,588
Total current liabilities	52,263
Long-term operating lease liabilities	44,496
Total liabilities assumed	$ 96,759
Fair value of net assets acquired	$ 105,177
Cash	$ 57,064
Earnout consideration	2,040
Vendor consideration	46,073
Fair value of acquisition consideration	$ 105,177

The Company recorded an allocation of the purchase price to the tangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their fair values at the acquisition date, including the fair value of the equity method investment in the Joint Venture. The fair value of inventories, which is primarily made up of finished goods, was determined based on market assumptions for realizing a reasonable profit after selling costs. The fair value of intangibles reflects the rag & bone wholesale customer relationships, which is reported in other assets on the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets and will be amortized over a ten-year period reflecting the economic life of such relationships. In the acquisition, the Company assumed off-market leases for retail stores, which will be unwound over 3.5 years.

The Company considers the difference between the total fair value received, inclusive of the deferred tax asset recognized by the Company associated with the transaction, and consideration paid, to be a vendor consideration liability, which reflects the incentive the Company received to enter into the rag & bone transaction and related License Agreement. As such, a $46.1 million vendor consideration liability was recorded on the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets and no goodwill was recognized as of the acquisition date. The vendor consideration liability will be amortized over five years.

During the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, the Company incurred $0.1 million and $5.7 million, respectively, of transaction-related costs in connection with the acquisition of rag & bone, which was included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the condensed consolidated statements of income (loss) and comprehensive income (loss).

Pro Forma Financial Information

For the three months ended August 3, 2024 and the period April 2, 2024 through August 3, 2024, rag & bone's aggregate net revenue was $63.9 million and $87.2 million, respectively. The following financial information presents the Company's consolidated net revenues and net loss attributable to Guess?, Inc. as if the acquisition had occurred on January 29, 2023 (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	Aug 3, 2024	Jul 29, 2023	Aug 3, 2024	Jul 29, 2023
Pro-forma net revenue	$ 732,560	$ 724,824	$ 1,357,745	$ 1,349,565

The Company did not have any nonrecurring pro forma adjustments directly attributable to the rag & bone acquisition included in the reported pro forma revenue.

These pro forma revenues were based on estimates and assumptions, which the Company believes are reasonable and have been calculated after applying the Company's accounting policies. They are not the results that would have been realized had the acquisition actually occurred on January 29, 2023 and are not necessarily indicative of the Company's consolidated net revenue in future periods.

Equity Method Investment in and License Agreement with the Joint Venture

The Company determined that it does not have a controlling financial interest in the Joint Venture, as the Company does not control the governing body of the Joint Venture and does not have the right to direct the most significant activities of the Joint Venture, which include monetizing the rag & bone intellectual property through licensing arrangements. The Company accounts for its 50% interest in the Joint Venture, through which it exercises significant influence, under the equity method. The Company initially recorded its investment in the Joint Venture at cost which is derived from fair value due to the bundled nature of the rag & bone transaction, and included the acquisition of the rag & bone operating net assets, the License Agreement, as well as the Joint Venture investment. The carrying value of the Joint Venture investment is approximately $44.1 million, inclusive of the Company's interest held through a non-interest bearing loan of $15.6 million. The carrying value for the Company's equity investment is reported in other assets on the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets.

The Company and the Joint Venture entered into the License Agreement concurrent with the overall rag & bone transaction. The License Agreement grants the Company the exclusive right to use rag & bone intellectual property to manufacture licensed products worldwide and to sell licensed products in specified territories. The initial term of the License Agreement is ten years, and the License Agreement automatically renews for up to four successive renewal terms of ten years (unless the Company provides notice of non-renewal). The Joint Venture, through WHP Global, has the right to terminate the License Agreement upon certain breaches by the Company. Under the terms of the License Agreement, the Company will pay the Joint Venture royalties equal to specified percentages of net sales of licensed products, which vary based on sales channel, subject to an annual guaranteed minimum royalty during the term of the License Agreement. The Company records the royalty expenses within cost of product sales.

Pursuant to the agreement governing the operations of the Joint Venture, cash earnings of the Joint Venture will be distributed to the Company and WHP Global on a pro rata basis based on their respective equity ownership interests, subject to certain adjustments agreed to between the Company and WHP Global. The Company will subsequently adjust the carrying amount based on its share of the Joint Venture's net income or loss. The Company's share of equity income will be included within results from operations in the condensed consolidated statements of income (loss), subject to adjustments for intercompany profits associated with the License Agreement.

(3) Lease Accounting

The Company primarily leases its showrooms, advertising, licensing, sales and merchandising offices, remote distribution and warehousing facilities and retail and factory outlet store locations under operating lease agreements expiring on various dates through March 2039. The Company also leases some of its equipment, as well as computer hardware and software, under operating and finance lease agreements expiring on various dates through July 2029.

The Company's lease agreements primarily provide for lease payments based on a minimum annual rental amount, a percentage of annual sales volume, periodic adjustments related to inflation or a combination of such lease payments. Certain retail store leases provide for lease payments based upon the minimum annual rental amount and a percentage of annual sales volume, generally ranging from 3% to 26%, when specific sales volumes are exceeded. The Company's retail concession leases also provide for lease payments primarily based upon a percentage of annual sales volume, which averages approximately 25%.

During the three months ended August 3, 2024, the Company closed on the sale and leaseback of its U.S. distribution center. The lease payments escalate at a fixed percentage rate annually for the first ten years. After the initial lease term, the Company has the option to renew the lease for two five-year extension periods. The transaction met the criteria for sale-leaseback accounting and, as such, a net gain of $13.8 million was recognized on the sale of the assets.

In addition to the amounts as disclosed below, the Company has estimated additional operating lease commitments of approximately $15.0 million for leases where the Company has not yet taken possession of the underlying asset as of August 3, 2024. As such, the related operating lease ROU assets and operating lease liabilities have not been recognized in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheet as of August 3, 2024.

¹ Expenses (income) related to the convertible senior notes include interest expense, loss on extinguishment of debt and (gain) loss on fair value remeasurement for embedded derivative, net of associated income tax effect.

Potentially dilutive common stock, including equity awards granted that were outstanding as well as shares issuable under convertible senior notes, were not included in the computation of diluted weighted average common shares and common equivalent shares outstanding because their effect would have been antidilutive given the Company's net loss or if the assumed proceeds resulted in these awards being antidilutive. Antidilutive shares excluded from the computation of diluted weighted average common shares and common equivalent shares outstanding are:

Total	2,774,443	990,262	16,019,719	4,636,468

Notes:

¹ During the three months ended August 3, 2024, 1,398,312 potentially dilutive shares were excluded given the Company's net loss and 280,196 potentially dilutive shares were excluded because the assumed proceeds resulted in these awards being antidilutive.

For the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, the Company excluded 300,000 nonvested stock units which were subject to the achievement of market-based vesting conditions from the computation of diluted weighted average common shares and common equivalent shares outstanding because these conditions were not achieved as of August 3, 2024. For the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, the Company excluded 640,042 nonvested stock units which were subject to the achievement of performance-based or market-based vesting conditions from the computation of diluted weighted average common shares and common equivalent shares outstanding because these conditions were not achieved as of July 29, 2023.

Warrants related to the 2.00% convertible senior notes due April 2024 (the "2024 Notes") to purchase approximately 1.3 million and 4.6 million shares of the Company's common shares at adjusted strike prices of $41.08 and $44.87 per share were outstanding as of August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, respectively. Warrants related to the 3.75% convertible senior notes due April 2028 (the "2028 Notes", and together with the 2024 Notes, the "Notes") to purchase approximately 15.8 million and 11.1 million shares of the Company's common shares at adjusted strike prices of $37.76 and $41.64 per share were outstanding as of August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, respectively. During the three and six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, these warrants were excluded from the computation of diluted net earnings per share since the warrants' adjusted strike price was greater than the average market price of the Company's common stock. See Note 11 for more information regarding the Notes.

(5) Stockholders' Equity

Share Repurchase Program

During fiscal 2022, the Board of Directors authorized a $200 million share repurchase program (the "2021 Share Repurchase Program"). On March 14, 2022, the Board of Directors expanded the repurchase authorization under the 2021 Share Repurchase Program by $100 million. In January 2024, the Board of Directors expanded the repurchase authorization by approximately $1.4 million to cover the repurchases associated with the January 2024 issuance of the January Additional 2028 Notes (as defined in Note 11). As of February 3, 2024, the Company had no remaining authority under the 2021 Share Repurchase Program to purchase its common stock.

On March 25, 2024, the Board of Directors authorized a new $200 million share repurchase program (the "2024 Share Repurchase Program"). Repurchases under the 2024 Share Repurchase Program may be made on the open market or in privately negotiated transactions, pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 trading plans or other available means. There is no minimum or maximum number of shares to be repurchased under the program and the program may be discontinued at any time without prior notice.

During the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, the Company repurchased 2.3 million and 2.6 million shares of the Company's common stock under its 2024 Share Repurchase Program at an aggregate cost of $50.5 million and $60.8 million, respectively, including excise tax. During the three months ended July 29, 2023, there were no share repurchases. During the six months ended July 29, 2023, the Company repurchased 2.2 million shares under its 2021 Share Repurchase Program at an aggregate cost of $42.8 million, including excise tax. As of August 3, 2024, the Company had remaining authority under the 2024 Share Repurchase Program to purchase $139.8 million of its common stock.

Dividends

The following sets forth the cash dividend declared per share:

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	Aug 3, 2024	Jul 29, 2023	Aug 3, 2024	Jul 29, 2023
Cash dividend declared per share	$ 0.300	$ 0.300	$ 2.850	$ 0.525

The indenture governing the 2024 Notes required an adjustment to the conversion rate and the conversion price of the 2024 Notes for quarterly dividends exceeding $0.1125 per share. The indenture governing the 2028 Notes requires an adjustment to the conversion rate and the conversion price of the 2028 Notes for quarterly dividends exceeding $0.225 per share.

On May 24, 2023, the Company announced an increase to its regular quarterly cash dividend from $0.225 to $0.30 per share on the Company's common stock. On March 20, 2024, the Company announced a special cash dividend of $2.25 per share on the Company's common stock in addition to the quarterly cash dividend of $0.30 per share. The dividends were paid on May 3, 2024 to shareholders of record as of the close of business on April 17, 2024. In accordance with the terms of the indentures governing the 2028 Notes, the Company has adjusted the conversion rate and the conversion price of the 2028 Notes for quarterly dividends exceeding $0.225 per share. Corresponding adjustments have been made to the strike prices with respect to the convertible note hedges and the warrants entered into by the Company in connection with the offering of the 2028 Notes, each of which was decreased in accordance with the terms of the applicable convertible note hedge confirmations and warrant confirmations. Refer to Note 11 for more information.

For each of the periods presented, dividends paid also included the impact from vesting of restricted stock units that are considered non-participating securities and are only entitled to dividend payments once the respective awards vest.

(6) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable is summarized as follows (in thousands):

	Aug 3, 2024	Feb 3, 2024
Trade	$ 312,720	$ 305,900
Royalty	12,466	9,334

Less allowances	6,960	7,176
	$ 332,037	$ 314,769

Accounts receivable consists of trade receivables relating primarily to the Company's wholesale business in Europe and, to a lesser extent, its wholesale businesses in the Americas and Asia, royalty receivables relating to its licensing operations, credit card and retail concession receivables related to its retail businesses and certain other receivables. Other receivables generally relate to amounts due to the Company that result from activities that are not related to the direct sale of the Company's products or collection of royalties.

(7) Inventories

Inventories consist of the following (in thousands):

	Aug 3, 2024	Feb 3, 2024
Raw materials	$ 7,113	$ 1,488
Work in progress	329	3
Finished goods	595,821	464,806
	$ 603,263	$ 466,297

The above balances include an allowance to write down inventories to the lower of cost or net realizable value of $23.1 million and $25.5 million as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, respectively.

(8) Income Taxes

Effective Income Tax Rate

Income tax expense for the interim periods is computed using the income tax rate estimated to be applicable for the full fiscal year, adjusted for discrete items. The Company's effective income tax rate was an expense of 49.4% for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to 29.2% for the six months ended July 29, 2023. The change in the effective income tax rate was primarily due to lower pre-tax income as well as the discrete items, compared to the same prior-year period.

Intra-Entity Transactions

During fiscal 2022, the Company completed an intra-entity transfer of intellectual property rights from certain U.S. entities to a wholly-owned Swiss subsidiary, more closely aligning the Company's intellectual property rights with its business operations. This transaction resulted in a taxable gain in the U.S. The U.S. taxable gain generated by this intercompany transfer of intellectual property was primarily offset by the recognition of a deferred income tax asset in the Swiss subsidiary.

Unrecognized Income Tax Benefit

The Company and its subsidiaries are subject to U.S. federal and foreign income tax, as well as income tax of multiple state and foreign local jurisdictions. From time-to-time, the Company is subject to routine income and other audits on various income tax matters around the world in the ordinary course of business. As of August 3, 2024, the Company does not expect its ongoing income tax or other tax audits to have a material impact on the financial statements.

As of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, the Company had $65.8 million and $63.4 million, respectively, of aggregate accruals for uncertain income tax positions, including penalties and interest. This includes an accrual of $19.9 million for the estimated transition tax (excluding interest) related to the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the "Tax Reform") and $20.6 million for the intra-entity transfer of intellectual property rights from certain U.S. entities to a wholly-owned Swiss subsidiary, substantially offset by the related deferred income tax benefit recorded by the Swiss subsidiary. The Company reviews and updates the estimates used in the accrual for uncertain income tax positions, as appropriate, as more definitive information or interpretations become available from income taxing authorities, and on the completion of income tax audits, the receipt of assessments, expiration of statutes of limitations, or occurrence of other events.

During fiscal 2021, the Company became aware of a foreign withholding income tax regulation that could be interpreted to apply to certain of its previous transactions. The Company currently does not expect its exposure, if any, will have a material impact on its consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Indefinite Reinvestment Assertion

The Company has historically considered the undistributed earnings of its foreign subsidiaries to be indefinitely reinvested. As a result of the Tax Reform, the Company had a substantial amount of previously taxed earnings that could be distributed to the U.S. without additional U.S. taxation. As of August 3, 2024, the Company determined that approximately $64.2 million of such foreign earnings are not indefinitely reinvested. The incremental tax cost to repatriate these earnings to the U.S. is immaterial. The Company intends to indefinitely reinvest the remaining earnings from the Company's foreign subsidiaries for which a deferred income tax liability has not already been recorded. The Company continues to evaluate its plans for reinvestment or repatriation of unremitted foreign earnings and regularly reviews its cash positions and determination of indefinite reinvestment of foreign earnings. If the Company determines that all or a portion of such foreign earnings are no longer indefinitely reinvested, the Company may be subject to additional foreign withholding taxes and U.S. state income taxes, beyond the one-time transition tax.

(9) Segment Information

The Company's businesses are grouped into five reportable segments for management and internal financial reporting purposes: Europe, Americas Retail, Americas Wholesale, Asia and Licensing. The Company's Europe, Americas Retail, Americas Wholesale and Licensing reportable segments are the same as their respective operating segments. Certain components of the Company's Asia operating segment are separate operating segments based on region, which have been aggregated into the Asia reportable segment for disclosure purposes. On April 2, 2024, the Company completed the rag & bone acquisition and has integrated rag & bone into its existing segments for financial reporting purposes.

Management evaluates segment performance based primarily on revenues and earnings (loss) from operations before corporate performance-based compensation costs, asset impairment charges, net gains (losses) on lease modifications, separation charges, transaction costs, restructuring charges, gain on sale of assets and certain non-recurring credits (charges), if any. The Company believes this segment reporting reflects how its business segments are managed and how each segment's performance is evaluated by the Company's chief operating decision maker to assess performance and make resource allocation decisions.

Notes:

¹ During the three and six months ended August 3, 2024 and the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, the Company recognized asset impairment charges related primarily to impairment of property and equipment related to certain retail locations resulting from under-performance and expected store closures. Refer to Note 16 for more information regarding these asset impairment charges.

² During the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, the Company recorded net gains on lease modifications related primarily to the early termination of certain lease agreements.

³ During three and six months ended August 3, 2024 the Company recorded a gain on the sale of assets related to the U.S. distribution center.

The below presents information regarding geographic areas in which the Company operated. Net revenue is classified primarily based on the country where the Company's customer is located (in thousands):

Net revenue	$ 732,560	$ 664,512	$ 1,324,503	$ 1,234,310

Due to the seasonal nature of the Company's business segments, the above net revenue and operating results are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full fiscal year.

(10) Borrowings and Finance Lease Obligations

Borrowings and finance lease obligations are summarized (in thousands):

	Aug 3, 2024	Feb 3, 2024
Term loans	$ 7,390	$ 12,060
Finance lease obligations	12,727	15,430

Less current installments	41,348	40,781
Long-term debt and finance lease obligations	$ 187,838	$ 28,210

Term Loans

The Company entered into term loans with certain banks primarily in Europe during fiscal 2021. These loans are primarily unsecured, have remaining terms of approximately one year and incur interest at annual rates ranging between 1.5% to 6.5%. As of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, the Company had outstanding borrowings of $7.4 million and $12.1 million, respectively, under these borrowing arrangements.

Finance Lease Obligations

The Company has entered into finance leases for equipment used in its European distribution centers. These finance lease agreements provide for monthly minimum lease payments and expire on various dates through May 2027 with a weighted average effective interest rate of approximately 6%. As of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, these finance lease obligations totaled $6.5 million and $8.1 million, respectively.

The Company also has smaller finance leases related to computer hardware and software and other equipment. As of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, these finance lease obligations totaled $6.2 million and $7.3 million, respectively.

Mortgage Debt

During fiscal 2017, the Company entered into a ten-year $21.5 million real estate secured loan (the "Mortgage Debt") which was secured by the Company's U.S. distribution center based in Louisville, Kentucky. The Mortgage Debt required the Company to comply with a fixed charge coverage ratio on a trailing four-quarter basis if consolidated cash, cash equivalents, short-term investment balances and availability under borrowing arrangements fell below certain levels. In addition, the Mortgage Debt contained customary covenants, including covenants that limited or restricted the Company's ability to incur liens on the mortgaged property and enter into certain contractual obligations. Upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Mortgage Debt, the lender could have terminated the Mortgage Debt and declared all amounts outstanding to be immediately due and payable. The Mortgage Debt specified a number of events of default (some of which were subject to applicable grace or cure periods), including, among other things, non-payment defaults, covenant defaults, cross-defaults to other material indebtedness, bankruptcy and insolvency defaults and material judgment defaults. In May 2023, the Company amended the terms of the Mortgage Debt, which was previously payable at a variable rate based on the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR"), to provide for the interest rate to be based on the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR"), effective May 1, 2023. The Company also amended its existing interest rate swap agreement, resulting in a swap fixed rate of approximately 3.14%. During the three months ended August 3, 2024, the Company paid the $16.3 million remaining balance of the Mortgage Debt when it sold the associated building and land.

Credit Facilities

Long-Term 2023 Credit Facility

During fiscal 2023, the Company amended and restated its senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility with Bank of America, N.A. and other lenders party thereto to extend the maturity date of the credit facility to December 20, 2027, among other changes (as amended, the "2023 Credit Facility"). In addition, the Company entered into agreements to amend the 2023 Credit Facility to permit, among other things, an exchange and subscription offering and certain related transactions on each of April 12, 2023 and March 28, 2024. The 2023 Credit Facility previously provided for a borrowing capacity in an amount up to $150 million, which was increased in March 2024 by $50 million to a total borrowing capacity under the facility up to $200 million. The borrowing facility includes a Canadian sub-facility up to $20 million, subject to a borrowing base. Based on applicable accounts receivable, inventory and eligible cash, subject to certain allowances, the Company could have borrowed up to $176.2 million under the 2023 Credit Facility as of August 3, 2024. The 2023 Credit Facility has an option to expand the borrowing capacity by up to $100 million subject to certain terms and conditions, including the willingness of existing or new lenders to assume such increased amount. The 2023 Credit Facility is available for direct borrowings and the issuance of letters of credit, subject to certain letters of credit sublimits, and may be used for repayment of debt, working capital and other general corporate purposes. As of August 3, 2024, the Company had $8.2 million in outstanding standby letters of credit, no outstanding documentary letters of credit and no outstanding borrowings under the 2023 Credit Facility. As of February 3, 2024, the Company had $6.6 million in outstanding standby letters of credit, no outstanding documentary letters of credit and no outstanding borrowings under the 2023 Credit Facility.

All obligations under the 2023 Credit Facility are unconditionally guaranteed by the Company and the Company's existing and future domestic and Canadian subsidiaries, subject to certain exceptions, and are secured by a first priority lien on substantially all of the assets of the Company and such domestic and Canadian subsidiaries, as applicable.

Direct borrowings under the 2023 Credit Facility made by the Company and its domestic subsidiaries bear interest at the U.S. base rate plus an applicable margin (varying from 0.25% to 0.75%) or at Term SOFR plus a spread adjustment plus an applicable margin (varying from 1.25% to 1.75%), provided that Term SOFR may not be less than zero. The U.S. base rate is based on the greater of (i) the U.S. prime rate, (ii) the federal funds rate, plus 0.5%, and (iii) Term SOFR plus a spread adjustment for a 30-day interest period, plus 1.0%, provided that the U.S. base rate may not be less than zero. Direct borrowings under the 2023 Credit Facility made by the Company's Canadian subsidiaries bear interest at the Canadian prime rate plus an applicable margin (varying from 0.25% to 0.75%) or at the Term Canadian Overnight Repo Rate Average ("CORRA") rate plus an applicable margin (varying from 1.25% to 1.75%), provided that the Term CORRA rate may not be less than zero. The Canadian rate is based on the greater of (i) the Canadian prime rate and (ii) the Term

CORRA rate for a one-month interest period, plus 1.0%, provided that the Canadian prime rate may not be less than zero. The applicable margins are calculated quarterly and vary based on the average daily availability of the aggregate borrowing base. The Company is also obligated to pay certain commitment, letter of credit and other fees customary for a credit facility of this size and type.

The 2023 Credit Facility contains various annual sustainability key performance targets, the achievement of which would result in an adjustment to the interest margin ranging from plus 5 basis points to minus 5 basis points per year and the commitment fee ranging from plus 1 basis point to minus 1 basis point per year. The 2023 Credit Facility requires the Company to comply with a fixed charge coverage ratio on a trailing four-quarter basis if a default or an event of default occurs under the 2023 Credit Facility or availability under the 2023 Credit Facility falls below the greater of 10% of the aggregate borrowing base or $12.5 million. In addition, the 2023 Credit Facility contains customary covenants, including covenants that limit or restrict the Company and certain of its subsidiaries' ability to: incur liens, incur indebtedness, make investments, dispose of assets, make certain restricted payments, merge or consolidate and enter into certain transactions with affiliates. Upon the occurrence of an event of default under the 2023 Credit Facility, the lenders may cease making loans, terminate the 2023 Credit Facility and declare all amounts outstanding to be immediately due and payable. The 2023 Credit Facility specifies a number of events of default (some of which are subject to applicable grace or cure periods), including, among other things, non-payment defaults, covenant defaults, cross-defaults to other material indebtedness, bankruptcy and insolvency defaults, and material judgment defaults. The 2023 Credit Facility allows for both secured and unsecured borrowings outside of the 2023 Credit Facility up to specified amounts.

Long-Term 2024 Credit Facility

During fiscal 2023, Guess Europe Sagl, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a credit agreement for a €250 million revolving credit facility with an initial five-year term. During the three months ended August 3, 2024, Guess Europe Sagl entered into agreements with certain lenders, which expanded the borrowing capacity under the credit agreement (as amended, the "2024 Credit Facility") from €250 million to €350 million.

In connection with the €100 million expansion in the size of the revolving line of credit, the 2024 Credit Facility provides for an increase in the applicable margin for outstanding borrowings and unused commitments under the revolving credit facility. Borrowings under the 2024 Credit Facility bear interest based on the daily balance outstanding at the Euro Interbank Offered Rate (EURIBOR) plus an applicable margin (varying from 1.10% to 1.45%), provided that EURIBOR may not be less than zero. The 2024 Credit Facility carries a commitment fee equal to the available but unused borrowing capacity multiplied by 35% of an applicable margin (varying from 1.10% to 1.45%). The Company is also required to pay a utilization fee on the total amount of the loans outstanding under the 2024 Credit Facility at rates varying from 0.10% to 0.20%, depending on the balance outstanding. The applicable margins are calculated quarterly and vary based on the leverage ratio of the guarantor and its subsidiaries as set forth in the 2024 Credit Facility.

The 2024 Credit Facility contains various annual sustainability key performance targets, the achievement of which would result in an adjustment to the interest margin ranging from plus 5 basis points to minus 5 basis points per year. The 2024 Credit Facility includes a financial covenant requiring a maximum leverage ratio of the guarantor and its subsidiaries and also includes customary representations and warranties, affirmative and negative covenants and events of default. As of August 3, 2024, the Company had $180.0 million of outstanding borrowings and $201.9 million available for future borrowings under the 2024 Credit Facility. As of February 3, 2024, the Company had no outstanding borrowings and $269.7 million available for future borrowings under the revolving credit facility prior to its amendment in 2024.

Other Credit Facilities

The Company, through its Chinese subsidiary, maintains a short-term uncommitted bank borrowing agreement that provides for a borrowing capacity up to $30 million, primarily for working capital purposes.

The Company had $23.0 million and $17.9 million in outstanding borrowings under this agreement as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, respectively.

The Company, through its Japanese subsidiary, maintains a short-term uncommitted bank borrowing agreement that provides for a borrowing capacity up to ¥1.0 billion ($6.8 million), primarily for working capital purposes. The Company had $3.1 million and $3.7 million in outstanding borrowings under this agreement as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, respectively.

From time-to-time, the Company will obtain other financing in foreign countries for working capital to finance its local operations.

(11) Convertible Senior Notes and Related Transactions

Exchange and Subscription Agreements

In April 2023, the Company issued $275 million principal amount of 3.75% convertible senior notes due 2028 (the “Initial 2028 Notes”) in a private placement pursuant to separate, privately negotiated exchange and subscription agreements with a limited number of holders of its 2024 Notes and certain other investors, in each case pursuant to exemptions from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Pursuant to the exchange and subscription agreements, the Company exchanged approximately $184.9 million in aggregate principal amount of its 2024 Notes for $163.0 million in aggregate principal amount of Initial 2028 Notes and an aggregate of approximately $33.3 million in cash, representing accrued and unpaid interest and other consideration on the 2024 Notes, and issued $112.0 million aggregate principal amount of Initial 2028 Notes for cash at par. Immediately following the closing of the aforementioned April 2023 transactions, $115.1 million in aggregate principal amount of the 2024 Notes remained outstanding. In addition, the Company concurrently repurchased $42.8 million, including excise tax, of its common stock through broker-assisted market transactions, pursuant to the Company’s 2021 Share Repurchase Program. The Company evaluated all April 2023 exchanges and determined approximately 74% of the exchanged notes were accounted for as extinguishment of debt and approximately 26% were accounted for as modification of debt. As a result of these transactions entered into during April 2023, the Company recognized a $7.7 million loss on extinguishment of debt during the first quarter of fiscal 2024.

In January 2024, the Company exchanged approximately $67.1 million of its 2024 Notes for approximately $64.8 million of additional 3.75% convertible senior notes due 2028 (the “January Additional 2028 Notes”) in privately negotiated exchange and subscription agreements with a limited number of holders of its 2024 Notes. The January Additional 2028 Notes have the same terms, constitute a single series with, and have the same CUSIP number as the Initial 2028 Notes. The January Additional 2028 Notes were initially recorded at fair value of approximately $71.9 million upon the exchange. Immediately following the closing of these January 2024 transactions, approximately $48.1 million of the 2024 Notes remained outstanding and classified within current liabilities. In addition, the Company concurrently repurchased $21.3 million, including excise tax, of its common stock through broker-assisted market transactions, pursuant to the Company’s 2021 Share Repurchase Program. The Company evaluated all January 2024 exchanges and determined that all of the exchanged notes were accounted for as extinguishment of debt. As a result of these transactions entered into during January 2024, the Company recognized a $4.7 million loss on extinguishment of debt during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2024.

In March 2024, the Company exchanged approximately $14.6 million of its 2024 Notes for approximately $12.1 million of additional 3.75% convertible senior notes due 2028 (the “March Additional 2028 Notes”, together with the January Additional 2028 Notes, the “Additional 2028 Notes” and the “Initial 2028 Notes” are referred to herein collectively as the “2028 Notes”) in a privately negotiated exchange and subscription agreement with a holder of its 2024 Notes. The March Additional 2028 Notes have the same terms, constitute a single series with, and have the same CUSIP number as the Initial 2028 Notes. The March Additional 2028 Notes were initially recorded at fair value of approximately $16.7 million upon the exchange. Immediately following the closing of this March 2024 transaction, approximately $33.5 million of the 2024 Notes remained outstanding, which were settled during April 2024. In addition, the Company concurrently repurchased $10.3 million of its common stock through broker-assisted market transactions, pursuant to the Company's 2024 Share Repurchase Program. The Company evaluated the March 2024 exchange and determined that all of the exchanged notes were accounted for as extinguishment of debt. As a result of this transaction entered into during March 2024, the Company recognized a $2.0 million loss on extinguishment of debt during the first quarter of fiscal 2025.

3.75% Convertible Senior Notes due 2028

In connection with the issuance of the Initial 2028 Notes, the Company entered into an indenture (the "2028 Indenture") with respect to the 2028 Notes with U.S. Bank Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the "2028 Trustee"). The 2028 Notes are senior unsecured obligations of the Company and bear interest at an annual rate of 3.75% payable semi-annually in arrears on April 15 and October 15 of each year, beginning on October 15, 2023. The 2028 Notes will mature on April 15, 2028, unless earlier repurchased or converted in accordance with their terms.

The 2028 Notes are convertible in certain circumstances into cash, shares of the Company's common stock, or a combination of cash and shares of the Company's common stock, at the Company's election, at an initial conversion rate of 40.4858 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of 2028 Notes, which is equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $24.70 per share, subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events. In accordance with the terms of the 2028 Indenture, the Company has adjusted the conversion rate and the conversion price of the 2028 Notes for quarterly dividends exceeding $0.225 per share (the conversion price is approximately $22.31 per share as of August 3, 2024). Prior to November 15, 2027, the 2028 Notes are convertible only upon the occurrence of certain events and during certain periods, and thereafter, at any time until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date of the 2028 Notes.

The 2028 Notes are not redeemable prior to maturity, unless certain significant corporate events occur, and no sinking fund is provided for the 2028 Notes. As of August 3, 2024, none of the conditions allowing holders of the 2028 Notes to convert had been met. The Company expects to settle the principal amount of the 2028 Notes in fiscal 2029 in cash and any excess in shares.

If the Company undergoes a "fundamental change," as defined in the 2028 Indenture, subject to certain conditions, holders of the 2028 Notes may require the Company to purchase for cash all or any portion of their 2028 Notes. The fundamental change purchase price will be 100% of the principal amount of the 2028 Notes to be purchased plus any accrued and unpaid interest up to but excluding the fundamental change purchase date.

The 2028 Indenture contains certain other customary terms and covenants, including that upon certain events of default occurring and continuing, either the 2028 Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the outstanding 2028 Notes may declare 100% of the principal of, and accrued and unpaid interest on, all the 2028 Notes to be due and payable.

In connection with the exchange of the 2024 Notes in January 2024 and March 2024, the conversion feature embedded in the Additional 2028 Notes failed to satisfy the requirements for the derivative scope exception for contracts indexed to the Company's own stock. The conversion feature of the Additional 2028 Notes required bifurcation from the host contract. The embedded derivative was measured at fair value of $18.9 million as of August 3, 2024. Debt discount of $11.8 million was recorded as the excess of the principal amount of the Additional 2028 Notes over the fair value of the host contract.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2025, the Company incurred approximately $0.9 million of debt issuance costs related to the March Additional 2028 Notes including third-party offering costs. During fiscal 2024, the Company incurred $5.9 million and $2.0 million of debt issuance costs related to the Initial 2028 Notes and the January Additional 2028 Notes, respectively, including third-party offering costs. Debt issuance costs were recorded as a contra-liability (other than $0.5 million expensed related to the 2024 Notes that were subject to modification accounting) and are presented net against the 2028 Notes balance on the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets. These costs are being amortized to interest expense over the term of the 2028 Notes.

2.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2024

In April 2019, the Company issued $300 million principal amount of the 2024 Notes in a private offering. In connection with the issuance of the 2024 Notes, the Company entered into an indenture (the “2024 Indenture”) with respect to the 2024 Notes with U.S. Bank N.A., as trustee. The 2024 Notes were senior unsecured obligations of the Company and bore interest at an annual rate of 2.00% payable semi-annually in arrears on April 15 and October 15 of each year. The Company incurred $5.3 million of debt issuance costs, which were comprised of $3.8 million of discounts and commissions payable to the initial purchasers and approximately $1.5 million of third-party offering costs. These costs were amortized to interest expense over the term of the 2024 Notes.

The 2024 Notes were convertible as described below into cash, shares of the Company’s common stock, or a combination of cash and shares of the Company’s common stock, at the Company’s election, at an initial conversion rate of 38.7879 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of 2024 Notes, which was equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $25.78 per share, subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events. In accordance with the terms of the 2024 Indenture, the Company had adjusted the conversion rate and the conversion price of the 2024 Notes for quarterly dividends exceeding $0.1125 per share. Prior to November 15, 2023, the 2024 Notes were convertible only upon the occurrence of certain events and during certain periods. Beginning November 15, 2023, the 2024 Notes became convertible at any time until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date of the 2024 Notes. The 2024 Notes were not redeemable prior to maturity, unless certain significant corporate events occurred, and no sinking fund was provided for the 2024 Notes.

In April 2024, upon maturity of the 2024 Notes, the Company settled the remaining $33.5 million principal amount of the 2024 Notes for $33.3 million in cash and 122,313 shares of common stock. The Company also exercised the convertible note hedge in connection with the remaining 2024 Notes and received 90,729 shares of common stock, which were recorded at fair value on settlement. As of August 3, 2024, there were no 2024 Notes outstanding.

The Notes consist of the following (in thousands):

Notes:

¹ The fair value of the Notes is determined based on inputs that are observable in the market and have been classified as Level 2 in the fair value hierarchy.

² The unamortized debt discount related to the Initial 2028 Notes is due to the result of the modification accounting for a portion of the exchanged notes. This discount represents both an increase in the fair value of the embedded conversion feature, which is calculated as the difference between the fair value of the embedded conversion feature immediately before and after the exchange, and cash paid to modified noteholders. The change in conversion feature value reduces the carrying amount of the convertible debt instrument with a corresponding increase in additional paid-in capital. The additional cash paid to modified noteholders increased the debt discount. This debt discount is being amortized to interest expense over five years.

³ For each of the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, the weighted average effective interest rate including amortization of debt discount and issuance costs was 4.5% and 9.3% for the Initial 2028 Notes and Additional 2028 Notes, respectively. For the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, the weighted average effective interest rate including amortization of debt discount and issuance costs was 4.5% for the Initial 2028 Notes.

⁴ The fair value of the embedded derivative is measured using significant unobservable inputs and are classified as Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy.

Interest expense for the Notes for the three and six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023 consists of the following (in thousands):

Convertible Bond Hedge and Warrant Transactions

In April 2023, in connection with the offering of the Initial 2028 Notes, the Company entered into convertible note hedge transactions whereby the Company had the option to purchase a total of approximately 11.1 million shares of its common stock at an initial strike price of approximately $24.70 per share (the “Initial 2028 Bond Hedge”). The total cost of the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge transactions was $51.8 million. In addition, the Company sold warrants whereby the holders of the warrants had the option to purchase a total of approximately 11.1 million shares of the Company’s common stock at an initial strike price of $41.80 per share (the “Initial 2028 Warrants”). The Company received $20.2 million in cash proceeds from the sale of these warrants. Both the number of shares underlying the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge and the Initial 2028 Warrants and the strike price of the instruments are subject to customary adjustments. In accordance with the original terms of the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge confirmations and the Initial 2028 Warrants confirmations, the Company has adjusted the strike prices with respect to the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge and the Initial 2028 Warrants for quarterly dividends exceeding $0.225 per share (approximately $22.31 per share and $37.76 per share, respectively, as of August 3, 2024). The purchase of the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge is intended to offset dilution from the conversion of the Initial 2028 Notes to the extent the market price per share of the Company’s common stock exceeds the then-applicable strike price of the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge. The warrant transaction may have a dilutive effect with respect to the Company’s common stock to the extent the market price per share of the Company’s common stock exceeds the then-applicable strike price of the warrants. In April 2023, the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge and the Initial 2028 Warrants were recorded in stockholders’ equity, were not accounted for as derivatives and were not remeasured each reporting period.

Concurrently, in connection with the retirement of $184.9 million in principal amount of the 2024 Notes in April 2023, the Company entered into Partial Termination Agreements with certain financial institutions to unwind a portion of the convertible note hedge transactions and warrant transactions the Company had entered into in connection with the issuance of the 2024 Notes. The terminated portion is in a notional amount corresponding to the amount of exchanged 2024 Notes. As a result, the Company received $7.2 million, which reduced the number of purchase options to approximately 4.6 million shares of common stock at an adjusted strike price of approximately $24.92 per share. Additionally, the Company paid $1.0 million related to terminated warrants, which reduced the number of shares that may be purchased pursuant to the warrants to 4.6 million shares of common stock at an adjusted strike price of approximately $45.31 per share. This transaction resulted in a $6.2 million net increase in additional paid-in capital in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheet as of April 29, 2023. For the remaining portion of the convertible note hedge transactions and warrant transactions entered into in connection with the 2024 Notes, both the number of shares underlying the instruments and the strike price of the instruments were subject to customary adjustments pursuant to their original terms. In accordance with the original terms of the convertible note hedge confirmations and warrant confirmations, the Company had adjusted the strike prices with respect to the convertible note hedges and warrants for quarterly dividends exceeding $0.1125 per share. The remaining convertible note hedges and warrant transactions continued to serve to partially offset the potential dilution arising from the conversion of the 2024 Notes that remained outstanding.

In connection with the exchange of the 2024 Notes in January 2024 and March 2024, the Company purchased incremental bond hedges (the "Additional 2028 Bond Hedge", together with the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge, the "2028 Bond Hedge") and sold incremental warrants (the "Additional 2028 Warrants") with the same terms and conditions as the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge and the Initial 2028 Warrants, each with a notional amount equal to the notional amount of the Additional 2028 Notes. The Company paid premiums of $16.2 million and $6.5 million to purchase the Additional 2028 Bond Hedge in January 2024 and March 2024, respectively, and received $5.8 million and $3.7 million for the issuance of the Additional 2028 Warrants in January 2024 and March 2024, respectively. The Additional 2028 Bond Hedge purchased and the Additional 2028 Warrants issued have terms that are identical to the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge and the Initial 2028 Warrants, except the notional amounts match the number of shares issuable upon conversion of the Additional 2028 Notes. Similarly, in connection with the retirement of $67.1 million and $14.6 million in principal amount of the 2024 Notes in January 2024 and March 2024, respectively, the Company entered into Partial Termination Agreements with certain financial institutions to unwind a portion of the convertible note hedge transactions and warrant transactions the Company had entered into in connection with the issuance of the 2024 Notes. The terminated portion is in a notional amount corresponding to the amount of exchanged 2024 Notes. As a result, the Company received $1.9 million and $1.3 million for the unwind of the convertible bond hedge in January 2024 and March 2024, respectively, and paid $0.1 million and $0.5 million for the unwind of the warrants in January 2024 and March 2024, respectively. These transactions in January 2024 and March 2024 resulted in a $1.8 million and a $0.8 million net increase, respectively, in paid-in capital in the Company's consolidated balance sheet as of May 4, 2024. As a result of the unwind transactions, the convertible note hedge transactions and warrant transactions that remained outstanding had a notional amount of approximately 1.3 million shares of common stock, corresponding to the number of shares into which the remaining 2024 Notes were convertible. In addition, upon maturity of the 2024 Notes in April 2024, the Company exercised the convertible note hedge in connection with the remaining 2024 Notes and there was no outstanding convertible note hedge as of August 3, 2024. The warrant transactions remain outstanding and have a notional amount of approximately 1.3 million shares of common stock with a current strike price of $41.08 per share as of August 3, 2024.

The Additional 2028 Warrants meet the scope exception for derivatives indexed to and settled in the Company's own stock. Therefore, the Additional 2028 Warrants are recorded in stockholders' equity, are not accounted for as derivatives and are not remeasured each reporting period. The Additional 2028 Bond Hedge does not qualify for the scope exception for derivatives indexed to the Company's own stock because the settlement of the Additional 2028 Bond Hedge is indexed to the same inputs as the settlement of the Additional 2028 Notes which do not qualify for the scope exception. Additionally, in connection with the purchase of the Additional 2028 Bond Hedge, the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge was modified and merged with the Additional 2028 Bond Hedge. The result is that the Initial 2028 Bond Hedge no longer qualifies for the derivative scope exception for contracts indexed to the Company's own stock. As a result, in January 2024, the Company recognized a derivative asset of $84.7 million for the 2028 Bond Hedge in other assets in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheet, of which $16.2 million relates to the Additional 2028 Bond Hedge purchased for cash and $68.5 million relates to the reclassification of the pre-existing Initial 2028 Bond Hedge, which resulted in an increase of $68.5 million in paid-in capital in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheet. The 2028 Bond Hedge is subsequently required to be remeasured to fair value each reporting period with changes in fair value recognized in net earnings (loss).

(12) Share-Based Compensation

The following summarizes the share-based compensation expense recognized under all of the Company's stock plans (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	Aug 3, 2024	Jul 29, 2023	Aug 3, 2024	Jul 29, 2023

Employee Stock Purchase Plan	8	45	99	94
Total share-based compensation expense	$ 4,315	$ 5,455	$ 9,006	$ 10,075

As of August 3, 2024, there was no unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested stock options and approximately $31.7 million of unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested stock awards/units. This cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of 1.7 years.

At the 2024 annual meeting of stockholders held on May 31, 2024, the Company's shareholders approved an amendment and restatement of the Guess?, Inc. 2004 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended (the "2004 Plan"). The amendment and restatement of the 2004 Plan increased the aggregate number of shares of the Company's common stock available for award grants under the 2004 Plan by 3,890,000 shares (from 29,780,000 shares to 33,670,000 shares).

Annual Grants

On March 29, 2024, the Company granted 375,800 nonvested stock awards/units to its employees.

Performance-Based Awards

The Company has granted certain nonvested stock units subject to performance-based vesting conditions to select executive officers. Each award of nonvested stock units generally has an initial vesting period from the date of the grant through either (i) the end of the first fiscal year or (ii) the first anniversary of the date of grant, followed by annual vesting periods which may range from two-to-three years.

The following summarizes the activity for nonvested performance-based units during the six months ended August 3, 2024:

	Number of Units	Weighted Average Grant Date Fair Value
Nonvested at February 3, 2024	376,916	$ 18.36

Vested	(112,590)	18.14
Forfeited	—	—
Nonvested at August 3, 2024	264,326	$ 18.45

Market-Based Awards

The Company has granted certain nonvested stock units subject to market-based vesting conditions to select executive officers. These market-based awards include (i) units where the number of shares that may ultimately vest will equal 0% to 150% of the target number of shares, subject to the performance of the Company's total stockholder return ("TSR") relative to the TSR of a select group of peer companies over a three-year period and (ii) units scheduled to vest based on the attainment of certain absolute stock price levels over a four-year period. Vesting is also subject to continued service requirements through the vesting date.

The following summarizes the activity for nonvested market-based units during the six months ended August 3, 2024:

	Number of Units	Weighted Average Grant Date Fair Value
Nonvested at February 3, 2024	722,780	$ 19.55
Granted ¹	43,150	17.77
Vested ¹	(172,601)	17.77
Forfeited	—	—
Nonvested at August 3, 2024	593,329	$ 19.94

Notes:

¹ As a result of the achievement of certain market-based vesting conditions, there were 43,150 shares that vested in addition to the original target number of shares granted in fiscal 2022.

(13) Related Party Transactions

The Company and its subsidiaries periodically enter into transactions with certain entities (the “Marciano Entities”) that are owned by or for the respective benefit of, Paul Marciano, who is an executive and member of the Board of the Company, and Maurice Marciano, who is the brother of Paul Marciano and was a member of the Board until his retirement in September 2023.

Leases

The Company leases warehouse and administrative facilities from certain of the Marciano Entities. There were four of these leases in effect as of August 3, 2024 with expiration or option exercise dates ranging from calendar years 2025 to 2030, including two leases with respect to the Company’s North American corporate headquarters in Los Angeles, California (the “Los Angeles Location”), a lease for the Company’s Canadian warehouse and administrative facility in Montreal, Quebec (the “Montreal Location”) and a lease for the Company’s showroom and office space in Paris, France (the “Paris Location”).

In August 2023, the Company (through a wholly-owned Canadian subsidiary) entered into a three-year lease extension through August 2026 with respect to the Montreal Location. All other material terms in the previously existing lease for the Montreal Location (including base rent of approximately CAD$0.6 million ($0.4 million) per year) remain the same.

Aggregate lease costs recorded under the leases for the Los Angeles Location were $3.8 million and $3.7 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, respectively. The Marciano Entities have a 100% ownership interest in the Los Angeles Location, with Mr. Maurice Marciano having a 56.3% ownership interest and Mr. Paul Marciano having a 43.7% ownership interest. Accordingly, Mr. Maurice Marciano’s interest in the lease amounts for the Los Angeles Location were $2.1 million for each of the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, and Mr. Paul Marciano’s interest in the lease amounts for the Los Angeles Location were $1.7 million and $1.6 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, respectively.

Aggregate lease costs recorded under the lease for the Montreal Location were $0.2 million for each of the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023. The Marciano Entities have a 100% ownership interest in the Montreal Location, with each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano having a 50% ownership interest. Accordingly, the interests in the lease amounts for the Montreal Location for each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano were approximately $0.1 million for each of the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023.

Aggregate lease costs recorded under the lease for the Paris Location were $0.6 million for each of the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023. The Marciano Entities have a 66.7% ownership interest in the Paris Location, with each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano having a 33.3% ownership interest. Accordingly, the interests in the lease amounts for the Paris Location for each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano were approximately $0.2 million for each of the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023.

The Company believes that, at the time it entered into the related party leases, the terms of such leases were no less favorable to the Company than would have been available from unaffiliated third parties. Refer to Note 3 for more information on lease commitments.

Aircraft Arrangements

The Company periodically charters aircraft owned by certain of the Marciano Entities through informal arrangements with such Marciano Entities and independent third-party management companies contracted by such Marciano Entities to manage their aircraft. The Marciano Entities have a 100% ownership interest in the aircraft, with each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano having a 50% ownership interest. The total fees paid by the Company to the independent third-party management companies under these arrangements for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023 were approximately $1.4 million and $2.0 million, respectively. The approximate dollar value of the amount of each of Mr. Maurice Marciano's and Mr. Paul Marciano's interest in these transactions was approximately $0.6 million and $0.7 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, respectively. The Company believes that the terms of the charter arrangements are no less favorable to the Company than would have been available from unaffiliated third parties.

Minority Investment

The Company has a 30% ownership interest in a privately-held men's footwear company (the "Footwear Company"). The Marciano Entities have a 45% ownership interest in the Footwear Company, with each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano having a 22.5% ownership interest. Accordingly, each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano has a 22.5% interest in each of the transactions between the Company and the Footwear Company described below.

In fiscal 2021, the Company provided the Footwear Company with a $2.0 million revolving credit facility at an annual interest rate of 2.75% and a maturity date of November 2023. In October 2023, the Company and the Footwear Company amended the revolving credit facility to extend the term by three years to November 30, 2026 and to adjust the interest rate, effective December 1, 2023, to a floating rate equal to the one month term SOFR plus 1.75% per annum. As of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, the Company had a note receivable of $0.7 million and $0.6 million, respectively, included in other assets in its condensed consolidated balance sheets related to outstanding borrowings by the Footwear Company under this revolving credit facility.

In May 2022, the Company entered into a Fulfillment Services Agreement with the Footwear Company under which the Company provides certain fulfillment services for the Footwear Company's U.S. wholesale and e-commerce businesses from the Company's U.S. distribution center on a cost-plus 5% basis. The Footwear Company also pays rent to the Company for the use of a small office space in the Company's U.S. headquarters. In June 2022, the Company (through a wholly-owned Swiss subsidiary) entered into a Distributorship Agreement with the Footwear Company under which the Company was designated as the exclusive distributor (excluding e-commerce) for the Footwear Company in the European Union and other specified countries. The Distributorship Agreement provided for (i) the Company to receive a 35% discount from the Footwear Company's wholesale prices, (ii) no minimum sales requirements or advertising spending requirements for the Company, (iii) an initial 15 month term with annual renewals thereafter, and (iv) other standard terms and conditions for similar arrangements. In May 2023, the Distributorship Agreement was amended to (i) reflect a reduction in the amount of sales services to be performed by the Company, (ii) revise the wholesale discount to 22%, and (iii) provide an annual 2% advertising commitment by the Company. During the six months ended August 3, 2024, there were less than $1,000 in fees received with respect to the U.S. fulfillment services, approximately $4,000 in fees received with respect to office rent and $314,000 in amounts paid related to the distributorship arrangements. During the six months ended July 29, 2023, there were approximately $7,000 in fees received with respect to the U.S. fulfillment services, approximately $9,000 in fees received with respect to office rent and less than $5,000 in amounts paid related to the distributorship arrangements.

Vendor Purchases

The Company purchases faux fur products from a privately-held fashion accessories company (the “Fashion Company”). The Marciano Entities have a 16% ownership interest in the Fashion Company, with each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano having an 8% ownership interest. In addition, Carlos Alberini, Chief Executive Officer of the Company, has a 4% ownership interest in the Fashion Company. The total payments made by the Company to the Fashion Company were approximately $0.4 million for each of the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023. Based on their respective ownership interests in the Fashion Company, the approximate dollar value of the amount of each individual’s interest in these transactions were approximately (i) for each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano, $33,000 and $32,000 for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, respectively, and (ii) for Mr. Alberini, $17,000 and $16,000 for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, respectively. The Company believes that the price paid by the Company for the Fashion Company’s products and the terms of the transactions between the Company and the Fashion Company have not been affected by this passive investment of Messrs. Marciano and Mr. Alberini in the Fashion Company.

Vendor Collaboration

During April 2023, the Company entered into a co-branding collaboration arrangement in connection with a large-scale music festival with a privately-held alcoholic beverage company (the “Beverage Company”). The Marciano Entities have a 15% ownership interest in the Beverage Company, with each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano having a 7.5% ownership interest. In addition, Nicolai Marciano, the Chief New Business Development Officer of the Company and son of Mr. Paul Marciano, has a 1.4% ownership interest in the Beverage Company. Accordingly, each of Mr. Maurice Marciano and Mr. Paul Marciano has a 7.5% interest and Mr. Nicolai Marciano has a 1.4% interest in the transaction between the Company and the Beverage Company described below.

The co-branding arrangement provided for (i) the Beverage Company to pay a $100,000 fee, provide certain beverage products, facilitate the acquisition of additional third-party sponsors for the event and co-brand its social media posts with the Company and (ii) the Company to engage social-media influencers to attend the event and promote both companies through social-media posts, and provide promotional travel, lodging, hospitality and other ancillary expenses for select attendees at the co-branded event.

(14) Commitments and Contingencies

Investment Commitments

As of August 3, 2024, the Company had an unfunded commitment to invest €3.7 million ($4.0 million) in certain private equity funds. Refer to Note 16 for further information.

Legal and Other Proceedings

The Company is involved in legal proceedings, arising both in the ordinary course of business and otherwise, including the proceedings described below as well as various other claims and other matters incidental to the Company’s business. Unless otherwise stated, the resolution of any particular proceeding is not currently expected to have a material adverse impact on the Company’s financial position, results of operations or cash flows. Even if such an impact could be material, the Company may not be able to estimate the reasonably possible loss or range of loss until developments in the proceedings have provided sufficient information to support an assessment.

The Company has received customs tax assessment notices from the Italian Customs Agency (“ICA”) regarding its customs tax audit of one of the Company’s European subsidiaries for the period from July 2010 through December 2012. Such assessments totaled €9.8 million ($10.7 million), including potential penalties and interest through such assessment dates. The Company strongly disagreed with the ICA’s positions and therefore filed appeals with the Milan First Degree Tax Court (“MFDTC”). Those appeals were split into a number of different cases that were then heard by different sections of the MFDTC. The MFDTC ruled in favor of the Company on all of these appeals. The ICA subsequently appealed €9.7 million ($10.6 million) of these favorable MFDTC judgments with the Appeals Court. As of August 3, 2024, €8.5 million ($9.3 million) have been decided in favor of the Company and €1.2 million ($1.3 million) have been decided in favor of the ICA. The Company believes that the unfavorable Appeals Court ruling is incorrect and inconsistent with the prior rulings on similar matters by both the MFDTC and other judges within the Appeals Court, and has appealed the decision to the Supreme Court. The ICA has appealed most of the favorable Appeals Court rulings to the Supreme Court. As of August 3, 2024, of the cases that have been appealed to the Supreme Court, €1.5 million ($1.6 million) have been decided in favor of the Company based on the merits of the case and €0.2 million ($0.2 million) have been remanded back to the lower court for further consideration. There can be no assurances the Company will be successful in the remaining appeals. It also continues to be possible that the Company will receive similar or even larger assessments for periods subsequent to December 2012 or other claims or charges (including additional interest amounts) related to the matter in the future. Although the Company believes that it has a strong position and will continue to vigorously defend this matter, it is unable to predict with certainty whether or not these efforts will ultimately be successful or whether the outcome will have a material impact on the Company’s financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

On January 11, 2022, Legion Partners Holdings, LLC (“Legion”), a stockholder of Guess common stock, sent two letters to the Board of Directors of Guess (the “Board”). One letter sought books and records pursuant to Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the “220 Demand”) to purportedly investigate potential breaches of fiduciary duties by the Board in connection with the Board’s renomination of Mr. Maurice Marciano to the Board and certain related party transactions. The second letter demanded that the Board take action to cause the Company to investigate and commence legal proceedings for breach of fiduciary duty claims the Company may have in connection with alleged misconduct of Mr. Paul Marciano, the Board’s oversight of and response to such alleged misconduct, and the Board’s review and approval of certain related-party transactions (the “Litigation Demand”). On January 31, 2022, the Company responded to both letters informing Legion that the Company was reviewing the formation of a committee in response to the Litigation Demand and detailing the deficiencies with the 220 Demand under Delaware law, including that Legion failed to state a proper purpose and that the scope of Legion’s requested books and records was overbroad. The Company subsequently formed a Demand Review Committee, which engaged in a review of the matters detailed in the Litigation Demand.

On April 14, 2022, the Employees Retirement System of Rhode Island (“ERSRI”), a stockholder of Guess common stock, sent a letter to the Company seeking books and records pursuant to Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law to purportedly investigate potential breaches of fiduciary duties by the Board in connection with alleged misconduct of Mr. Paul Marciano, the Board’s oversight of and response to such alleged misconduct, and the Board’s review and approval of certain related-party transactions. The Company responded to the letter on April 19, 2022, negotiated a Confidentiality Agreement, and completed its production of books and records to ERSRI.

On September 19, 2022, ERSRI filed a stockholder derivative lawsuit styled Employees Retirement System of Rhode Island, derivatively on behalf of Guess?, Inc. v. Paul Marciano, et al., in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware against the Company, as the nominal defendant, Mr. Paul Marciano and other members of the Board, alleging breach of fiduciary duties relating to the continued service of Mr. Paul Marciano as a director of the Board and as the Company’s Chief Creative Officer following prior allegations of improper conduct by him relating to the treatment of models and other women. ERSRI did not make a demand on the Board before instituting the lawsuit and alleged such demand would have been futile. On October 28, 2022, ERSRI amended the complaint to include an additional basis for alleging demand futility. ERSRI sought monetary damages and possible injunctive relief.

On September 29, 2023, the Company and all defendants in the ERSRI action entered into a Stipulation and Agreement of Compromise, Settlement, and Release (the “Stipulation”), which was approved by the Court on January 4, 2024 and resolved all claims asserted against all defendants in the ERSRI action without any admission or finding of wrongdoing attributed to them personally or to the Company. Under the terms of the Stipulation, the Company will implement certain governance and compliance enhancements. These enhancements include an agreement by the Company to appoint two new independent directors to the Board, including one to be selected by ERSRI and mutually agreed to by the Company, by no later than the Company’s 2025 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The governance enhancements also include the establishment of a Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Council (the “DEI Council”), which will be comprised of the aforementioned new independent director to be selected by ERSRI and two consultants, including one consultant to be selected by ERSRI. Once formed, the DEI Council will report directly to the Board and be responsible for overseeing the development and implementation of the Company’s policies and procedures related to harassment, discrimination and retaliation, including, in certain circumstances, having the authority to conduct investigations and to recommend disciplinary action, up to and including termination, of senior executives or Board members found to have engaged in misconduct. The DEI Council will also be responsible for overseeing a commitment to be added to the Company’s Governance Guidelines regarding the Company’s measures to prevent and respond to sexual harassment and discrimination. The Stipulation also includes certain agreements by Mr. Paul Marciano relating to meetings or activities with current or prospective Company models. In addition to the governance enhancements, pursuant to the Stipulation, (a) the defendants in the ERSRI action caused the Company to receive (i) a payment of $22 million upon Court approval of the settlement pursuant to the terms of the Stipulation, and (ii) the right to receive an additional payment of $8 million contingent on the recovery from the insurers currently being sought by the Company and the insureds in pending litigation against the insurers, and (b) the Company is responsible to pay an attorney’s fee award to ERSRI’s counsel. The $22 million received by the Company and the related attorney’s fee award under the terms of the Stipulation was accounted for by the Company when approved by the Court.

On February 16, 2023, Legion filed a stockholder derivative lawsuit styled Legion Partners Holdings, LLC, derivatively on behalf of Guess?, Inc. v. Paul Marciano, et al. in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware against the Company, as the nominal defendant, Mr. Paul Marciano and other members of the Board, alleging breach of fiduciary duties relating to the continued service of Mr. Paul Marciano to the Company following the prior allegations described in the ERSRI stockholder derivative lawsuit. Legion seeks monetary damages and possible injunctive relief. On March 15, 2023, the Company moved for a more definite statement and moved to dismiss or stay the action. On May 9, 2023, Legion voluntarily dismissed the claims against Mr. Paul Marciano without prejudice. On April 3, 2024, based on the settlement of the derivative suit with ERSRI, as described above, the Court dismissed the Legion action with prejudice.

On June 3, 2023, the Company received a letter from an individual seeking to settle certain claims against Mr. Paul Marciano and the Company relating to allegations of improper treatment of the individual by Mr. Paul Marciano in 2016. The letter did not make an assertion of damages. The individual was initially represented by the same attorney who represented plaintiffs in similar actions in 2021 and 2022, which were settled out of court in 2022 to avoid the cost of litigation and without admitting liability or fault. The individual subsequently retained a different attorney. No complaint has been filed with respect to the allegations in the June 2023 letter, and Mr. Paul Marciano and the Company dispute the allegations and intend to vigorously defend themselves with regard to this matter.

On July 30, 2024, the Company received a letter from an individual seeking to settle certain claims against Mr. Paul Marciano, Mr. Maurice Marciano, certain current and former members of the Board, the Company’s former Chief Executive Officer and the Company. The letter provided notice of several potential claims based on allegations that the individual was treated improperly by Mr. Paul Marciano while discussing a prospective modeling opportunity between 2015 and 2016. No complaint has been filed with respect to the allegations in the July 2024 letter. The Company and Mr. Paul Marciano dispute the allegations and intend to vigorously defend this matter.

Redeemable Noncontrolling Interests

The Company is party to a put arrangement with respect to the common securities that represent the remaining noncontrolling interest for its majority-owned subsidiary, Guess Brasil Comércio e Distribuição S.A. (“Guess Brazil”). The put arrangement for Guess Brazil, representing 40% of the total outstanding equity interest of that subsidiary, may be exercised at the discretion of the noncontrolling interest holder by providing written notice to the Company every third anniversary beginning in March 2019, subject to certain time restrictions. The redemption value of the Guess Brazil put arrangement is based on a multiple of Guess Brazil’s earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization subject to certain adjustments and is classified as a redeemable noncontrolling interest outside of permanent equity in the Company’s condensed consolidated balance sheet. As of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, the carrying value of the redeemable noncontrolling interest related to Guess Brazil was $0.4 million and $0.5 million, respectively.

The Company (through a wholly-owned European subsidiary) was previously party to a put arrangement with respect to the securities that represented the remaining noncontrolling interest for its majority-owned Russian subsidiary, Guess? CIS, LLC (“Guess CIS”), which was established through a majority-owned joint venture during fiscal 2016. The put arrangement for Guess CIS (the “Put Option”), representing 30% of the total outstanding equity interest of that subsidiary, was exercisable at the sole discretion of the noncontrolling interest holder (the “Minority Holder”) by providing written notice to the Company through December 31, 2025. The redemption value of the Put Option was based on a multiple of Guess CIS’s earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization subject to certain adjustments and was classified as a redeemable noncontrolling interest outside of permanent equity in the Company’s condensed consolidated balance sheet. The carrying value of the redeemable noncontrolling interest related to Guess CIS was €8.0 million as of January 28, 2023.

In November 2022, the Minority Holder exercised the Put Option, triggering a contractual obligation for the Company to purchase the Minority Holder’s 30% interest in Guess CIS. Following a comprehensive review of the various economic sanctions imposed by the United States and European governments with respect to Russia, and obtaining guidance from the U.S. Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control, the Company determined that its acquisition of the Minority Holder’s 30% interest in Guess CIS pursuant to the Company’s pre-sanctions contractual obligation to fulfill the Minority Holder’s exercise of the Put Option was not prohibited by current economic sanctions, including the U.S. ban on new investment in Russia. As such, following the exercise of the Put Option by the Minority Holder, the Company and the Minority Holder entered into an agreement to proceed with the Company’s acquisition of the Minority Holder’s 30% interest in Guess CIS for a purchase price of €8.0 million, subject to the formal approval of the acquisition by the relevant Russian government commission and certain other customary conditions. This formal approval was received, and the purchase was completed in May 2023. As a result of this transaction, there was no redeemable noncontrolling interest related to Guess CIS as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024.

(15) Defined Benefit Plans

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

The Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan ("SERP") provides select employees who satisfy certain eligibility requirements with certain benefits upon retirement, termination of employment, death, disability or a change in control of the Company, in certain prescribed circumstances. As a non-qualified pension plan, no dedicated funding of the SERP is required; however, the Company has made periodic payments into insurance policies held in a rabbi trust to fund the expected obligations arising under the non-qualified SERP. The cash surrender values of the insurance policies were $64.7 million and $63.4 million as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, respectively, and were included in other assets in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets. As a result of changes in the value of the insurance policy investments, the Company recorded unrealized gains of $2.5 million and $2.2 million in other income (expense) during the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, respectively, and immaterial unrealized gains in other income (expense) during the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, respectively. The projected benefit obligation was $37.7 million as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, and was included in accrued expenses and other current liabilities and other long-term liabilities in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets depending on the expected timing of payments. SERP benefit payments of $0.5 million were made during each of the three months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023. SERP benefit payments of $1.0 million were made during each of the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023.

Foreign Pension Plans

In certain foreign jurisdictions, primarily in Switzerland, the Company is required to guarantee the returns on Company-sponsored defined contribution plans in accordance with local regulations. The Company's contributions must be made in an amount at least equal to the employee's contribution. Minimum employee contributions are based on the respective employee's age, salary and gender.

As of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, the foreign pension plans had a total projected benefit obligation of $59.6 million and $56.3 million, respectively, and plan assets held in independent investment fiduciaries of $52.2 million and $49.4 million, respectively. The net liability of $7.4 million and $6.8 million was included in other long-term liabilities in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, respectively.

The components of net periodic defined benefit pension cost related to the Company's defined benefit plans are (in thousands):

(16) Fair Value Measurements

Authoritative guidance defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The guidance establishes a fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value into three broad levels as follows:

Level 1—Inputs are unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that can be accessed at the measurement date.

Level 2—Inputs include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability (i.e. interest rates, yield curves, etc.) and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means (market corroborated inputs).

Level 3—Unobservable inputs that reflect assumptions about what market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. These inputs are based on the best information available, including the Company's own data.

The following presents the fair value hierarchy for those assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis (in thousands):

Recurring Fair Value Measures	Fair Value Measurements at Aug 3, 2024				Fair Value Measurements at Feb 3, 2024
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Assets:
Foreign exchange currency contracts	$ —	$ 990	$ —	$ 990	$ —	$ 2,278	$ —	$ 2,278
2028 Bond Hedge	—	—	86,446	86,446	—	—	85,918	85,918
Interest rate swap	—	—	—	—	—	797	—	797
Total	$ —	$ 990	$ 86,446	$ 87,436	$ —	$ 3,075	$ 85,918	$ 88,993
Liabilities:
Foreign exchange currency contracts	$ —	$ 1,015	$ —	$ 1,015	$ —	$ 1,702	$ —	$ 1,702
Embedded derivative	—	—	18,900	18,900	—	—	16,390	16,390
Deferred compensation obligations	—	18,580	—	18,580	—	17,164	—	17,164
Total	$ —	$ 19,595	$ 18,900	$ 38,495	$ —	$ 18,866	$ 16,390	$ 35,256

Foreign exchange currency contracts may be entered into by the Company to hedge the future payment of inventory and intercompany transactions by non-U.S. subsidiaries. Periodically, the Company may also use foreign exchange currency contracts to hedge the translation and economic exposures related to its net investments in certain of its international subsidiaries. The fair values of the Company's foreign exchange currency contracts are based on quoted foreign exchange forward rates at the reporting date. The fair values of the Company's interest rate swaps are based upon inputs corroborated by observable market data. Deferred compensation obligations to employees are adjusted based on changes in the fair value of the underlying employee-directed investments. Fair value of these obligations is based upon inputs corroborated by observable market data.

The fair values of the embedded derivative and the 2028 Bond Hedge related to the Additional 2028 Notes were initially measured based on the observed transactions. Subsequent fair values are measured using a binomial lattice model utilizing observable inputs (e.g. the Company's stock price) and unobservable inputs (e.g. the expected volatility and instrument specific credit spread) that cause the valuation measurements to be classified as Level 3. The following assumptions were used within the model:

Valuation Assumptions	Aug 3, 2024	Feb 3, 2024
Expected volatility	30 %	30 %
Risk-free interest rate	3.7 %	4.1 %
Credit spread	2.7 %	4.3 %
Dividend yield	5.3 %	5.2 %
Term to maturity	3.7 years	4.2 years
Stock price	$ 22.43	$ 22.86

As of August 3, 2024, if the expected volatility were increased to 40%, keeping all other inputs constant, the fair value of the embedded derivative would increase from $18.9 million to $24.4 million and the fair value of the 2028 Bond Hedge would increase from $86.4 million to $111.7 million. If the expected volatility were decreased to 20%, the fair value of the embedded derivative would decrease from $18.9 million to $13.2 million and the fair value of the 2028 Bond Hedge would decrease from $86.4 million to $60.3 million. If the credit spread increased from 2.7% to 3.7%, keeping all other inputs constant, the fair value of the embedded derivative would increase from $18.9 million to $19.7 million and the fair value of the 2028 Bond Hedge would increase from $86.4 million to $90.0 million. If the credit spread decreased from 2.7% to 1.7%, the fair value of the embedded derivative would decrease from $18.9 million to $18.1 million and the fair value of the 2028 Bond Hedge would decrease from $86.4 million to $82.8 million.

The following presents a reconciliation of the Company's financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value as of August 3, 2024, using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3), and the change in fair value recorded in other income (expense), net in the consolidated statements of income (loss) (in thousands):

	Embedded Derivative	2028 Bond Hedge
Balance as of February 3, 2024	$ (16,390)	$ 85,918
Initial bifurcation of embedded derivative	(6,538)	—
Purchase of Additional 2028 Bond Hedge	—	6,538
Gain (loss) on fair value remeasurement	4,028	(6,010)
Balance as of August 3, 2024	$ (18,900)	$ 86,446

The Company included €8.0 million ($8.7 million) and €7.1 million ($7.7 million) in other assets in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets related to its investment in certain private equity funds as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, respectively. The Company uses net asset value per share as a practical expedient to measure the fair value of this investment and has not included this investment in the fair value hierarchy as disclosed above. As of August 3, 2024, the Company had an unfunded commitment to invest an additional €3.7 million ($4.0 million) in the private equity funds.

The fair values of the Company's debt instruments (see Note 10) are based on the amount of future cash flows associated with each instrument discounted using the Company's incremental borrowing rate. As of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, the carrying value was not materially different from fair value, as the interest rates on the Company's debt approximated rates currently available to the Company. The fair value of the Company's Notes (see Note 11) is determined based on inputs that are observable in the market and have been classified as Level 2 in the fair value hierarchy.

The carrying amount of the Company's remaining financial instruments, which principally include cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses, approximates fair value due to the relatively short maturity of such instruments.

Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets, such as property and equipment and operating lease ROU assets, are reviewed for impairment quarterly or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. The majority of the Company's long-lived assets relate to its retail operations, which consist primarily of regular retail and flagship locations. The Company considers each individual regular retail location as an asset group for impairment testing, which is the lowest level at which individual cash flows can be identified. The Company also evaluates impairment risk for retail locations that are expected to be closed in the foreseeable future. The Company has flagship locations that are used as a regional marketing tool to build brand awareness and promote the Company's current product. Provided the flagship locations continue to meet the appropriate criteria, impairment for these locations is tested at a reporting unit level similar to goodwill since they do not have separately identifiable cash flows.

An asset is considered to be impaired if the Company determines that the carrying value may not be recoverable based upon its assessment of the asset's ability to continue to generate earnings from operations and positive cash flow in future periods or if significant changes in the Company's strategic business objectives and utilization of the assets occurred. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows adjusted for lease payments, an impairment charge is recognized in the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the estimated fair value. The Company uses estimates of market participant rents to calculate fair value of ROU assets and discounted future cash flows of the asset group to quantify fair value for other long-lived assets. These nonrecurring fair value measurements are considered Level 3 inputs as defined above.

The impairment loss calculations require management to apply judgment in estimating future cash flows and the discount rates that reflect the risk inherent in future cash flows. Future expected cash flows for assets in regular retail locations are based on management's estimates of future cash flows over the remaining lease period or expected life, if shorter. For expected location closures, the Company will evaluate whether it is necessary to shorten the useful life for any of the assets within the respective asset group. The Company will use this revised useful life when estimating the asset group's future cash flows. The Company considers historical trends, expected future business trends and other factors when estimating the future cash flow for each regular retail location. The Company also considers factors such as the following: the Russia-Ukraine war, including the related sanctions and trade restrictions imposed on Russia; the local environment for each regular retail location, including mall traffic and competition; the Company's ability to successfully implement strategic initiatives; and the ability to control variable costs such as cost of sales and payroll and, in some cases, renegotiate lease costs.

As discussed further in Note 1, macroeconomic conditions, including declines in consumer spending, inflation, higher interest rates, foreign exchange rate fluctuations and the impact of the ongoing wars in Ukraine and Gaza continued to negatively impact the Company's financial results during the three and six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, and could continue to impact the Company's operations in ways the Company is not able to predict today. The Company has made reasonable assumptions and judgments to determine the fair value of the assets tested based on the facts and circumstances that were available as of the reporting date. If actual results are not consistent with the assumptions and judgments used in estimating future cash flows and asset fair values, there may be additional exposure to future impairment losses that could be material to the Company's results of operations.

The Company recorded asset impairment charges of $2.3 million and $3.4 million during the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, respectively. The Company recorded asset impairment charges of $2.6 million and $4.6 million during the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, respectively. The Company recognized $2.0 million and $2.9 million in impairment of property and equipment during the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, respectively, related to certain retail locations primarily in the Americas and Europe driven by under-performance and expected store closures. The Company recognized $2.5 million and $4.5 million in impairment of property and equipment related to certain retail locations primarily in Americas and Europe during the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, respectively. The Company recognized $0.3 million and $0.5 million impairment charges on ROU assets during the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, respectively, and immaterial impairment charges on ROU assets during each of the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, respectively.

Goodwill

Goodwill is tested annually for impairment or more frequently if events and circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired. An impairment loss is recognized to the extent that the carrying amount exceeds the asset's fair value. This determination is made at the reporting unit level which may be either an operating segment or one level below an operating segment if discrete financial information is available. Two or more reporting units within an operating segment may be aggregated for impairment testing if they have similar economic characteristics.

During the three months ended August 3, 2024, the Company assessed qualitative factors and determined that it is not more likely than not that the fair values of its reporting units are less than their carrying amounts.

Hedging Strategy

Foreign Exchange Currency Contracts

The Company operates in foreign countries, which exposes it to market risk associated with foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations. The Company's primary objective is to hedge the variability in forecasted cash flows due to the foreign currency risk. The Company enters into certain forward exchange currency contracts to hedge the risk of a portion of these anticipated foreign currency transactions against foreign currency rate fluctuations. The Company may also hedge the translation and economic exposures related to its net investments in certain of its international subsidiaries.

Interest Rate Swap Agreements

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk on its floating-rate debt. From time to time, the Company may enter into interest rate swap agreements to effectively convert its floating-rate debt to a fixed-rate basis. The principal objective is to eliminate or reduce the variability of the cash flows in interest payments associated with the Company's floating-rate debt, thus reducing the impact of interest rate changes on future interest payment cash flows. In connection with the sale of the U.S. distribution center, the Company settled its interest rate swap agreement, recognizing a gain of $0.8 million. As of August 3, 2024, there was no related net unrealized loss, net of tax, in AOCL.

Foreign Exchange Currency Contracts Designated as Cash Flow Hedges

During the six months ended August 3, 2024, the Company purchased U.S. dollar forward contracts in Europe totaling US$175.0 million that were designated as cash flow hedges. As of August 3, 2024, the Company had forward contracts outstanding for its European operations of US$145.0 million to hedge forecasted merchandise purchases, which are expected to mature over the next 14 months.

As of August 3, 2024, AOCL related to foreign exchange currency contracts included a $0.5 million net unrealized gain, net of tax, of which $0.5 million will be recognized in cost of product sales over the following 12 months, at the then current values on a pre-tax basis, which can be different than the current quarter-end values.

As of February 3, 2024, the Company had forward contracts outstanding for its European operations of $104.0 million that were designated as cash flow hedges.

Dividends

On August 28, 2024, the Company announced a regular quarterly cash dividend of $0.30 per share on the Company's common stock. The cash dividend will be paid on September 27, 2024 to shareholders of record as of the close of business on September 11, 2024. As a result of this dividend declaration and in accordance with the terms of the 2028 Indenture, the Company will adjust the conversion rate (which is expected to increase) and the conversion price (which is expected to decrease) of the 2028 Notes, effective as of September 11, 2024. A downward adjustment is also expected to be made to the strike prices of the 2028 Bond Hedge and 2028 Warrants, each of which will be decreased in accordance with the terms of the applicable 2028 Bond Hedge confirmations and 2028 Warrants confirmations.

ITEM 2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

General

Unless the context indicates otherwise, when we refer to “we,” “us,” “our” or the “Company” in this Form 10-Q, we are referring to Guess?, Inc. (“GUESS?”) and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may also be contained in our other reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, in our press releases and in other documents.

All statements other than statements of historical or current fact are forward-looking statements. These statements include those relating to expectations, analyses and other information based on current plans, forecasts of future results and estimates of amounts not yet determinable. These statements also relate to our expectations, goals, future prospects, and current business strategies and strategic initiatives; statements concerning our plans and expectations for our recently-acquired rag & bone business; statements concerning the impacts of macroeconomic conditions; statements concerning the ongoing wars in Ukraine and Gaza; expectations relating to our convertible senior notes and hedges; statements concerning our future capital expenditures and financial conditions; and statements expressing optimism or pessimism about future operating results and growth opportunities. These forward-looking statements are frequently indicated by terms such as “expect,” “could,” “will,” “should,” “goal,” “strategy,” “believe,” “estimate,” “continue,” “outlook,” “plan,” “create,” “see,” and similar terms, are only expectations, and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, which may cause actual results in future periods to differ materially from what is currently anticipated. Factors which may cause actual results in future periods to differ materially from current expectations include, among others: our ability to maintain our brand image and reputation; changes in consumer confidence or discretionary consumer spending; sanctions and export controls targeting Russia and other impacts related to the war in Ukraine; impacts related to the Israel-Hamas war; impacts related to public health crises; risks relating to our indebtedness; changes to estimates related to impairments, inventory and other reserves; changes in the competitive marketplace and in our commercial relationships; our ability to anticipate and adapt to changing consumer preferences and trends; our ability to manage our inventory commensurate with customer demand; the high concentration of our Americas Wholesale business; risks related to the costs and timely delivery of merchandise to our distribution facilities, stores and wholesale customers, including risks related to the current Red Sea supply chain crisis; unexpected or unseasonable weather conditions, catastrophic events or natural disasters; our ability to effectively operate our various retail concepts; our ability to successfully and/or timely implement our growth strategies and other strategic initiatives; our ability to complete or integrate acquisitions or alliances; uncertainties regarding our ability to realize operational efficiencies and other anticipated synergies, expansion plans and other benefits from the rag & bone acquisition in the timeframe expected or at all; our ability to successfully enhance our global omni-channel capabilities; our ability to expand internationally and operate in regions where we have less experience; risks relating to our convertible senior notes, including our ability to settle the liabilities in cash; disruptions at our distribution facilities, including potential challenges related to the conversion of our self-operated U.S. distribution center to a third-party provider; our ability to attract and retain management and other key personnel; obligations or changes in estimates arising from new or existing litigation, income tax and other regulatory proceedings; errors in our assumptions, estimates and judgments related to tax matters; changes in U.S. or foreign income tax or tariff policy, including changes to tariffs on imports into the U.S.; accounting adjustments to our unaudited financial statements; future non-cash asset impairments, including goodwill, right-of-use lease assets and/or other store asset impairments; violations of, or changes to, domestic or international laws and regulations; risks associated with the acts or omissions of our licensees and third party vendors, including a failure to comply with our vendor code of conduct or other policies; risks associated with cybersecurity incidents and other cybersecurity risks; risks associated with our ability to properly collect, use, manage and secure consumer and employee data; risks associated with our vendors’ ability to maintain the strength and security of information systems; changes in economic, political, social and other conditions affecting our foreign operations and sourcing, including the impact of currency fluctuations, global income tax rates and economic and market conditions in the various countries in which we operate; impacts of inflation and further inflationary pressures; fluctuations in quarterly performance; slowing in-person customer traffic; increases in labor costs; increases in wages; risks relating to activist investor activity; and the significant voting power of our founders. In addition to these factors, the economic, technological, managerial, and other risks identified in “Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors” of our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including but not limited to the risk factors discussed therein, could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Business Update, Market Trends and Uncertainties

Macroeconomic conditions, including declines in consumer spending, inflation, higher interest rates, foreign exchange rate fluctuations and the impact of the ongoing wars in Ukraine and Gaza are continuing to negatively impact our business.

We continue to carefully monitor global and regional developments and respond appropriately. We also continue to strategically manage expenses in order to protect profitability and mitigate, to the extent possible, the residual effect of supply chain disruptions, including the Red Sea crisis. The duration and scope of these conditions cannot be predicted, and therefore, any anticipated negative financial impact to our operating results cannot be reasonably estimated.

Business Segments

Our businesses are grouped into five reportable segments for management and internal financial reporting purposes: Europe, Americas Retail, Americas Wholesale, Asia and Licensing. Our Europe, Americas Retail, Americas Wholesale and Licensing reportable segments are the same as their respective operating segments. Certain components of our Asia operating segment are separate operating segments based on region, which have been aggregated into the Asia reportable segment for disclosure purposes. On April 2, 2024, we completed the rag & bone acquisition and have integrated rag & bone into our existing segments for financial reporting purposes.

We evaluate segment performance based primarily on revenues and earnings (loss) from operations before corporate performance-based compensation costs, asset impairment charges, net gains (losses) on lease modifications, separation charges, transaction costs, restructuring charges, gain on sale of assets and certain non-recurring credits (charges), if any. We believe this segment reporting reflects how our business segments are managed and how each segment’s performance is evaluated by our chief operating decision maker to assess performance and make resource allocation decisions. Information regarding these segments is summarized in “Part I, Item 1. Financial Statements – Note 9 – Segment Information.”

Products

We derive our net revenue from the sale of GUESS?, G by GUESS (GbG), GUESS Kids, GUESS JEANS, MARCIANO and rag & bone apparel and certain accessories and our licensees’ products through our worldwide network of directly-operated and licensed retail stores, wholesale customers and distributors, as well as our online sites. We also derive royalty revenue from worldwide licensing activities.

rag & bone Acquisition

On April 2, 2024, the Company and global brand management firm WHP Global completed the previously announced acquisition of New York-based fashion brand rag & bone. Under the terms of the agreement, we acquired all the rag & bone operating assets and assumed the related operating liabilities of the business. In addition, a joint venture owned 50% each by the Company and WHP Global acquired rag & bone's intellectual property. As of April 2, 2024, we integrated rag & bone into our existing segments for financial reporting purposes.

Foreign Currency Volatility

Since the majority of our international operations are conducted in currencies other than the U.S. dollar (primarily the euro, British pound, Canadian dollar, Chinese yuan, Japanese yen, Korean won, Mexican peso, Polish zloty, Russian rouble and Turkish lira), currency fluctuations can have a significant impact on the translation of our international revenues and earnings (loss) into U.S. dollars.

Some of our transactions, primarily those in Europe, Canada, South Korea, China, Hong Kong and Mexico, are denominated in U.S. dollars, Swiss francs, British pounds and Russian roubles, exposing them to exchange rate fluctuations when these transactions (such as inventory purchases or periodic lease payments) are converted to their functional currencies. As a result, fluctuations in exchange rates can impact the operating margins of our foreign operations and reported earnings (loss), and are largely dependent on the transaction timing and magnitude during the period that the currency fluctuates. When these foreign exchange rates weaken versus the U.S. dollar at the time the respective U.S. dollar denominated payment is made relative to the payments made in the comparable period, our product margins have been and could continue to be unfavorably impacted.

In addition, there are certain real estate leases denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the respective entity that entered into the agreement (primarily Swiss francs, Russian roubles and Polish zloty). As a result, we may be exposed to volatility related to unrealized gains or losses on the translation of present value of future lease payment obligations when translated at the exchange rate as of a reporting period-end.

During the first six months of fiscal 2025, the average U.S. dollar rate was stronger against the euro, Turkish lira, Canadian dollar, Chinese yuan, Russian rouble, Japanese yen and Korean won and weaker against the British pound, Polish zloty and Mexican peso. Overall, this had an unfavorable impact on the translation of our international revenues and earnings from operations for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period.

For the remainder of fiscal 2025, if the U.S. dollar strengthens relative to the respective fiscal 2024 foreign exchange rates, foreign exchange could negatively impact our revenues and operating results, as well as our international cash and other balance sheet items, particularly in Canada, Europe (primarily the euro, Turkish lira, British pound and Russian rouble) and Mexico. Alternatively, if the U.S. dollar weakens relative to the respective fiscal 2024 foreign exchange rates, our revenues and operating results, as well as our other cash balance sheet items, could be positively impacted by foreign currency fluctuations during the remainder of fiscal 2025, particularly in these regions. At roughly prevailing exchange rates, we expect currencies to turn to a tailwind on revenues for the remainder of fiscal 2025 but continue to represent a headwind for the overall year.

We enter into derivative financial instruments to offset some, but not all, of the exchange risk on foreign currency transactions. For additional discussion regarding our exposure to foreign currency risk, forward contracts designated as hedging instruments and forward contracts not designated as hedging instruments, refer to "Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk."

Inflation Impacts

Our financial results have been and may continue to be impacted by inflationary pressures affecting our overall cost structure, including transportation, employee compensation, raw materials and other costs. We estimate certain of our costs are impacted by inflation and other factors as follows:

Transportation. Our inbound and outbound transportation costs vary by the method of shipping, including air, ocean and ground. Each of these methods may be impacted by various factors, including inflation and other considerations, such as an imbalance between the overall freight capacity on the marketplace and demand, as well as geopolitical conflicts. Compared to pre-pandemic levels, the increase in our transportation costs was primarily attributable to higher inbound freight costs.

Employee Compensation. We have been impacted by the ongoing shortage of available qualified candidates for employment, as well as increases in compensation to attract and retain employees. We continue to evaluate our compensation and benefit offerings to be competitive with the current market and evaluate strategies to be more effective and efficient at all levels within the organization, including how to best serve our customers.

Raw Materials. The costs of raw materials for our products have increased, both as a result of inflation and our ongoing initiatives to improve the quality and sustainability of our products. In addition, because a significant portion of our products are manufactured in other countries, declines in the relative value of local currencies versus the U.S. dollar have exacerbated many of these pricing pressures.

We seek to minimize the impact of inflation by continuously optimizing our supply chain, including logistics, as well as efficiently managing our workforce. It is difficult to determine the portion of cost increases solely attributable to inflation versus other factors, such as the cost of improvements to our products and imbalances in the supply chain.

These increased costs have negatively impacted our margins and expenses. Continued inflationary and other pressures could further impact our gross margin and selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales if the sales price of our products does not increase with higher costs. Furthermore, prolonged inflationary conditions have had and could continue to have an adverse impact on consumer discretionary spending, which has negatively impacted our sales and results and could continue to negatively impact our sales and results in the future. In addition, inflation could materially increase the interest rates on any future debt we may incur.

We expect inflationary pressures will persist in the near term. The extent to which such pressures may impact our business depends on many factors, including our customers' ability and willingness to accept price increases, our ability to improve our margins and potential downward pricing pressures if our competitors do not also raise their prices. Please refer to "Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors" of our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K for further information on the potential impacts and risk associated with inflation.

Russia-Ukraine War

We are currently operating in Russia through our wholesale and retail channels and we have immaterial wholesale operations through local wholesale partners in Ukraine. Our operations in Russia are operated primarily through Guess? CIS, LLC ("Guess CIS"), a wholly-owned Russian subsidiary. Guess CIS currently operates 45 retail stores in Russia and acts as a distributor for our wholesale partners in Russia. We also operate in Russia through other local wholesale partners and by selling directly to retail customers through our European online store. Prior to February 2022, we also sold directly to retail customers in Ukraine and Belarus through our European online store.

Our operations in Russia, Belarus and Ukraine represented slightly less than 4% of our total revenue for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and slightly more than 4% for the six months ended July 29, 2023, with our operations in Russia comprising over 90% of this total revenue. As of August 3, 2024, our total assets in Russia, all of which are held by Guess CIS, represented less than 2% of our total assets, consisting primarily of leasehold right of use assets, store inventory, furnishings and fixtures and receivables. We only maintain inventory in Russia in an amount sufficient for operating our Russian retail stores. We do not maintain inventory or hold any other significant assets in Belarus or Ukraine. We do not rely, directly or indirectly, on goods sourced in Russia, Belarus or Ukraine. Other than such labor and services necessary to conduct our direct operations in Russia in the ordinary course of business, we do not rely, directly or indirectly, on services sourced in Russia, Belarus or Ukraine.

There has been no material impact to our existing operations as a result of the ongoing war in Ukraine, although we are limited in our ability to expand our business in Russia due to the U.S. ban on new investments in Russia described below under “—Impact of Sanctions and Trade Restrictions.” With respect to our supply and distribution channels, we have experienced increased costs and transit times associated with deliveries related to our Russia operations, due in part to new procedures and sanctions screening implemented in response to the war in Ukraine and the imposition of related sanctions. These costs and delays have not materially impacted our business or results of operations. Additionally, retail deliveries for online orders to Ukraine and Belarus have been suspended since February 2022 due to increased logistics costs and other difficulties in delivering to these regions. While we intend to re-open online orders to Ukraine and Belarus when appropriate, the suspension of these shipments has not had, and is not anticipated to have, a material impact on our business or results of operations. Our wholesale partner in Ukraine partially suspended its operations at the outset of the war; however, sales were re-opened in July 2022, and our business and results of operations were not materially impacted.

Impact of Sanctions and Trade Restrictions

Our Russian operations are subject to various sanctions and export control measures targeting Russia, Belarus, and the Russian-controlled regions of Ukraine (Crimea, Donetsk and Luhansk). These measures may include: (i) blocking sanctions prohibiting dealings with various Russian senior government officials, and companies in various sectors important to the Russian economy, including major Russian financial institutions; (ii) expanded sectoral sanctions related to designated Russian entities’ ability to raise capital; (iii) the disconnection of certain Russian and Belarusian banks from the Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunication (“SWIFT”) financial messaging network; (iv) a ban on new investment in Russia; (v) a ban on the provision of certain services in Russia in the areas of accounting, trust formation, management consulting, quantum computing, architecture, engineering and in relation to the maritime transport of Russian-origin crude oil and petroleum products; (vi) bans on the import into the United States of certain Russian origin products, including various energy products; (vii) bans on the conduct of business or investment activity in the Russian-controlled Crimea, Donetsk and Luhansk regions of Ukraine; and (viii) restrictions on the export of various products to Russia and Belarus, including certain dual-use industrial and commercial products, and luxury goods. Additionally, certain logistics operators have imposed bans on direct air deliveries to Russia and restrictions on land deliveries to and from Russia, Belarus and Ukraine, none of which have had a material impact on our operations to date. We assessed the applicability of these sanctions and trade restrictions based on internal assessments of relevant regulations and concluded our existing operations in Russia and Belarus have not been materially affected by these sanctions and trade restrictions, although we are limited from further expansion of our business in Russia. All of our deliveries (both wholesale and retail) undergo sanctions screening, including screening for maximum product value of $300 and €300 per item and prevention of shipments to sanctioned final recipients.

Our assessment of the impact of the various sanctions and export control measures targeting Russia, Belarus and the Russian-controlled regions of Ukraine is subject to the following uncertainties and assumptions:

- The duration and extent of the war in Ukraine;
- The impact of sanctions and trade restrictions targeting Russia and Belarus, and the possibility that such sanctions or trade restrictions may be expanded, or new sanctions or trade restrictions may be imposed;
- The possibility of significant exchange rate volatility related to the Russian rouble;
- Potential disruptions of normal cash flow resulting from the removal of Russian and Belarusian banks from the SWIFT financial messaging network and regulations of the Russian and Belarusian governments;
- Disruptions of transport access to and from Russia, Belarus or Ukraine; and
- The suspension of our online retail shipments to Belarus and Ukraine.

We continue to assess all of our operations in Russia to ensure compliance with applicable sanctions, including most notably the U.S. ban on new investment in Russia.

See Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors-Our business may also be affected by existing or future sanctions and export controls targeting Russia and other responses to Russia's invasion of Ukraine included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for additional information.

We are actively monitoring the situation in Ukraine. While the extent to which our future operations in Russia, Belarus and Ukraine will be impacted by the ongoing war is impossible to predict, the impact is not expected to be material to our results of operations, financial condition or cash flows.

Strategy

Our strategic vision and implementation plan for execution, includes several key priorities to drive revenue and operating profit growth. These priorities are: (i) organization and talent; (ii) growth; (iii) brand relevancy; (iv) customer centricity and digital expansion; (v) product excellence; and (vi) optimization, efficiency, profitability and return on invested capital; each as further described below:

Organization and Talent. We plan to have a best-in-class team of highly engaged and strongly committed individuals capable to lead and take our Company to the next level of growth and value creation.

Growth. We intend to leverage our infrastructure and capabilities, as well as the strength of our brands, to drive revenue growth. We will focus on increasing the productivity of our existing network, growing organically in existing and new markets, pursuing brand extensions and category expansions and considering opportunities that leverage our global infrastructure and network of licensees and wholesale partners.

Brand Relevancy. We continue to optimize our core brand architecture to be relevant with our three target consumer groups: Heritage, Millennials, and Generation Z. We have developed and launched one global line of product for all 25 categories we represent. We seek to elevate our Guess and Marciano brands and improve the quality and sustainability of our products, allowing us to realize more full-priced sales and rely less on promotional activity. We continue to use unique go-to-market strategies and execute celebrity and influencer partnerships and collaborations as we believe that they are critical to engage more effectively with a younger and broader audience. The addition of rag & bone to our brand portfolio will allow us to reach a very attractive customer base that is complimentary to that of our Guess and Marciano brands.

Customer Centricity and Digital Expansion. We continue to place the customer at the center of everything we do. We plan to implement processes and the necessary tools and platforms to provide our customers with a seamless omni-channel experience and expand our digital business.

Product Excellence. We believe product is a key factor for success in our business. We strive to design and make great products and will extend our product offering to provide our customers with products that support the different occasions of their lifestyles. We will seek to better address local product needs.

Optimization, Efficiency, Profitability and Return on Invested Capital. We intend to operate at the highest level of efficiency and effectiveness. We plan to invest in our infrastructure and leverage technology and data analytics to improve our operations and decision making. We will always seek high margin, profitable businesses, free cash flow generation and high return on invested capital.

Capital Allocation

We plan to continue to prioritize capital allocation toward investments that support growth and infrastructure, while remaining highly disciplined in the way we allocate capital across projects, including new store development, store remodels, technology and logistics investments and others. When we prioritize investments, we will focus on their strategic significance and their return on invested capital expectations. We also plan to manage product buys and inventory ownership rigorously and optimize overall working capital management consistently. In addition, we plan to continue to return value to shareholders through dividends and share repurchases, as appropriate, and we will consider opportunistic strategic acquisitions of brands and businesses that leverage our global infrastructure and network of licensees and wholesale partners.

In April 2023, we issued $275 million aggregate principal amount of 3.75% convertible senior notes due April 2028 (the "Initial 2028 Notes") and retired approximately $184.9 million aggregate principal amount of the existing 2.00% convertible senior notes due April 2024 (the “2024 Notes”) in a private offering. During the first quarter of fiscal 2024, in connection with the April 2023 exchange and subscription offering related to the 2024 Notes and the Initial 2028 Notes, we repurchased approximately 2.2 million shares of our common stock for $42.8 million, including excise tax, through broker-assisted market transactions, pursuant to our pre-existing share repurchase program.

In January 2024, we issued $64.8 million principal amount of additional 3.75% convertible senior notes due 2028 (the “January Additional 2028 Notes”) in privately negotiated exchange and subscription agreements with a limited number of holders of our 2024 Notes. As part of these January 2024 transactions, we exchanged approximately $67.1 million of our 2024 Notes for approximately $64.8 million of the January Additional 2028 Notes. In connection with the January 2024 exchange and subscription offering related to the 2024 Notes and the January 2028 Notes, we repurchased approximately 0.9 million shares of our common stock for $21.3 million, including excise tax, through broker-assisted market transactions, pursuant to our 2024 Share Repurchase Program (as defined below).

In March 2024, we issued $12.1 million principal amount of additional 3.75% convertible senior notes due 2028 (the “March Additional 2028 Notes”, together with the “January Additional 2028 Notes”, the “Additional 2028 Notes”; collectively with the “Initial 2028 Notes”, the “2028 Notes”) in a privately negotiated exchange and subscription agreement with a holder of our 2024 Notes (together with the “2028 Notes”, the “Notes”). As part of this March 2024 transaction, we exchanged approximately $14.6 million of our 2024 Notes for approximately $12.1 million of the March Additional 2028 Notes. In addition, we concurrently repurchased $10.3 million of our common stock through broker-assisted market transactions, pursuant to our 2024 Share Repurchase Program (as defined below). Immediately following the closing of this transaction, approximately $33.5 million of the 2024 Notes remained outstanding, which were settled upon maturity during April 2024. We also repurchased shares of our common stock in open market transactions totaling $50.5 million, including excise tax, during the six months ended August 3, 2024.

Retail Comparable Sales

We report National Retail Federation calendar retail comparable sales on a quarterly basis for our retail businesses which include the combined results from our brick-and-mortar retail stores and our e-commerce sites. We also separately report the impact of e-commerce sales on our retail comparable sales metric. As a result of our omni-channel strategy, our e-commerce business has become strongly intertwined with our brick-and-mortar retail store business. Therefore, we believe that the inclusion of e-commerce sales in our retail comparable sales metric provides a more meaningful representation of our retail results.

Sales from our brick-and-mortar retail stores include purchases that are initiated, paid for and fulfilled at our retail stores and directly-operated concessions as well as merchandise that is reserved online but paid for and picked up at our retail stores. Sales from our e-commerce sites include purchases that are initiated and paid for online and shipped from either our distribution centers or our retail stores as well as purchases that are initiated in a retail store, but due to inventory availability at the retail store, are ordered and paid for online and shipped from our distribution centers or picked up from a different retail store.

Store sales are considered comparable after the store has been open for 13 full fiscal months. If a store remodel results in a square footage change of more than 15%, or involves a relocation or a change in store concept, the store sales are removed from the comparable store base until the store has been opened at its new size, in its new location or under its new concept for 13 full fiscal months. Stores that are permanently closed or temporarily closed (including as a result of pandemic-related closures) for more than seven days in any fiscal month are excluded from the calculation in the fiscal month that they are closed. E-commerce sales are considered comparable after the online site has been operational in a country for 13 full fiscal months and exclude any related revenue from shipping fees. These criteria are consistent with the metric used by management for internal reporting and analysis to measure performance of the store or online sites. Definitions and calculations of retail comparable sales used by us may differ from similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

Other

We operate on a 52/53-week fiscal year calendar which ends on the Saturday nearest to January 31 of each year. The six months ended August 3, 2024 had the same number of days as the six months ended July 29, 2023. All references herein to “fiscal 2025”, “fiscal 2024” and “fiscal 2023” represent the results of the 52-week fiscal year ending February 1, 2025, the 53-week fiscal year ended February 3, 2024 and the 52-week fiscal year ended January 28, 2023, respectively.

Executive Summary

Overview

Net loss attributable to Guess?, Inc. was $10.6 million, or diluted net loss per share of $0.28, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to net earnings of $39.0 million, or diluted net earnings per share (“EPS”) of $0.59, for the quarter ended July 29, 2023.

During the quarter ended August 3, 2024, we recognized a net loss of $40.5 million on the fair value remeasurement of derivatives; $2.3 million in asset impairment charges; $1.7 million in separation charges; $0.8 million of amortization of debt discount related to our 2028 Notes; $0.1 million in transaction costs; $0.3 million for certain discrete income tax adjustments; $14.6 million gain on the sale of our U.S. distribution center and settlement of related interest rate swap; and a net credit $0.1 million for certain professional service and legal fees and related (credits) costs (or a combined $33.6 million, or $0.70 per share, negative impact after considering the related income tax benefit of $2.6 million). Excluding the impact of these items, adjusted net earnings attributable to Guess?, Inc. was $23.0 million and adjusted diluted EPS was $0.42 per common share for the quarter ended August 3, 2024.

During the quarter ended July 29, 2023, we recognized $2.6 million in asset impairment charges; $2.4 million in net gains on lease modifications; $0.2 million for certain professional services and legal fees and related (credits) costs; $0.2 million of amortization of debt discount related to our Notes; and $0.2 million for certain discrete income tax adjustments (or a combined $0.7 million, or $0.13 per share, negative impact after considering the related income tax benefit of $0.1 million). Excluding the impact of these items, adjusted net earnings attributable to Guess?, Inc. was $39.7 million and adjusted diluted EPS was $0.72 per common share for the quarter ended July 29, 2023. References to financial results excluding the impact of these items are non-GAAP measures and are addressed below under “Non-GAAP Measures.”

Highlights of our performance for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter are presented below, followed by a more comprehensive discussion under “Results of Operations” (References to constant currency results are non-GAAP measures and are addressed under “Non-GAAP Measures”):

Operations

- Total net revenue increased 10.2% to $732.6 million for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to $664.5 million in the same prior-year quarter. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 12.6%.
- Gross margin (gross profit as a percentage of total net revenue) decreased 60 basis points to 43.7% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to 44.3% in the same prior-year quarter.
- Selling, general and administrative (“SG&A”) expenses as a percentage of total net revenue (“SG&A rate”) increased 410 basis points to 38.7% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to 34.6% in the same prior-year quarter. SG&A expenses increased 23.2% to $283.0 million for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to $229.7 million in the same prior-year quarter.
- During the quarter ended August 3, 2024, we recognized $2.3 million of asset impairment charges, compared to $2.6 million in the same prior-year quarter.
- During the quarter ended August 3, 2024, we recognized no net gains on lease modifications, compared to $2.4 million in the same prior-year quarter.

- During the quarter ended August 3, 2024, we recognized a $13.8 million gain on sale of assets related to the sale of the U.S. distribution center.
- Operating margin decreased 320 basis points to 6.5% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to 9.7% in the same prior-year quarter. The decrease in operating margin was driven primarily by higher expenses, the impact of newly acquired businesses, higher promotions and unfavorable currency impact, partially offset by a gain on the sale of assets, higher initial markups and the favorable impact of higher revenues. Earnings from operations decreased 26.0% to $47.8 million for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to $64.6 million in the same prior-year quarter.
- Other expense, net, totaled $39.9 million for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to $4.6 million in the same prior-year quarter.
- The effective income tax rate increased by 347.4% to 373.9% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to 26.5% in the same prior-year quarter. The change in the effective income tax rate was primarily due to lower pre-tax income as well as the discrete items during the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter.

Key Balance Sheet Accounts

- We had $218.9 million in cash and cash equivalents and $1.4 million in restricted cash as of August 3, 2024 compared to $302.6 million in cash and cash equivalents at July 29, 2023.
 - As of August 3, 2024, we had $7.4 million in outstanding borrowings under our term loans and $206.1 million in outstanding borrowings under our credit facilities compared to $18.5 million in outstanding borrowings under our term loans and $127.3 million in outstanding borrowings under our credit facilities as of July 29, 2023.
 - In March 2024, we issued approximately $12.1 million principal amount of the Additional 2028 Notes in exchange for approximately $14.6 million of our outstanding 2024 Notes. Immediately following the closing of this transaction, approximately $33.5 million of the 2024 Notes remained outstanding, which were settled upon maturity during April 2024 for $33.3 million in cash and 122,313 shares of common stock.
 - During the first quarter of fiscal 2025, in connection with the additional exchange and subscription offering related to the 2024 Notes and the 2028 Notes, we repurchased approximately 0.3 million shares of our common stock for $10.3 million through broker-assisted market transactions. During the second quarter of fiscal 2025, we repurchased approximately 2.3 million shares of our common stock in open market transactions totaling $50.5 million, including excise tax, leaving a capacity of $139.8 million under the share repurchase program. Combined, these transactions resulted in the repurchase of approximately 2.6 million shares for $60.8 million during the six months ended August 3, 2024.
- Inventory increased by $48.8 million, or 8.8%, to $603.3 million as of August 3, 2024, from $554.4 million at July 29, 2023. On a constant currency basis, inventory increased by $61.2 million, or 11.0%, when compared to July 29, 2023. The increase was driven by our rag & bone acquisition.
- Accounts receivable consists of trade receivables relating primarily to our wholesale business in Europe and, to a lesser extent, to our wholesale businesses in the Americas and Asia, royalty receivables relating to our licensing operations, credit card and retail concession receivables related to our retail businesses and certain other receivables. Accounts receivable increased by $13.7 million, or 4.3%, to $332.0 million as of August 3, 2024 compared to $318.4 million at July 29, 2023. On a constant currency basis, accounts receivable increased by $21.7 million, or 6.8%, when compared to July 29, 2023. The increase was driven by our rag & bone acquisition.

Global Store Count

During the quarter ended August 3, 2024, together with our partners, we opened 32 new stores worldwide, consisting of 16 stores in Europe and the Middle East, nine stores in Asia and the Pacific and seven stores in the Americas. Net Revenue. Net revenue increased by $68 million, or 10%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter. Currency translation fluctuations relating to our non-U.S. operations unfavorably impacted net revenue by $16 million compared to the same prior-year quarter. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 13%. The increase in constant currency was mainly driven by $64 million due to the impact of the rag & bone acquisition, and $27 million due to higher wholesale shipments, partially offset by $11 million due to negative comparable store sales.

Gross Margin. Gross margin decreased by 0.6% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter, driven by 70 basis points from higher store occupancy costs, 30 basis points from higher markdowns and 20 basis points from the impact of newly acquired businesses, partially offset by 80 basis points due to higher initial markups.

Gross Profit. Gross profit increased $26 million for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter. The increase in gross profit was driven by $26 million from the impact of newly acquired businesses, $11 million due to higher revenues and $6 million from higher initial markups, partially offset by $8 million of unfavorable currency translational impact, $5 million from higher store occupancy costs and $3 million from higher markdowns.

Distribution costs, including labor, inbound freight charges, purchasing costs and related overhead, related to supplying inventory to store locations within our retail business are included in cost of product sales. We also include net royalties received on our inventory purchases of licensed product as a reduction to cost of product sales. We generally exclude wholesale-related distribution costs from gross margin, including them instead in SG&A expenses. Additionally, we include retail store occupancy costs in cost of product sales. As a result, our gross margin may not be comparable to that of other entities. To ensure expenses are separated appropriately, we track activities at each distribution center location and record the costs associated with our shipments of goods either as cost of sales or as selling, general and administrative expenses, accordingly.

SG&A Rate. Our SG&A rate increased 4.1% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter. The unfavorable change in SG&A rate was mainly driven by 360 basis points of higher expenses, including higher advertising costs, store labor costs and separation charges, 60 basis points from the impact of newly acquired businesses and 20 basis points of unfavorable currency impact, partially offset by 40 basis points from the favorable impact of higher revenues.

SG&A Expenses. SG&A expenses increased $53 million for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter. The increase in SG&A expenses was mainly driven by $27 million from higher expenses, including higher advertising costs, store labor costs and separation charges, and $26 million from the impact of newly acquired businesses, partially offset by $4 million from favorable currency impact.

Asset Impairment Charges. During the quarters ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, we recognized $2 million and $3 million, respectively, of property and equipment and operating lease ROU asset impairment charges related to certain retail locations resulting from under-performance and expected store closures.

Net Gains on Lease Modifications. There were no net gains on lease modifications during the quarter ended August 3, 2024. During the quarter ended July 29, 2023, we recorded net gains on lease modifications of $2 million, related primarily to the early termination of lease agreements for certain retail locations.

Gain on Sale of Assets. There was a $14 million gain on the sale of assets resulting from the sale of our U.S. distribution center during the quarter ended August 3, 2024.

Operating Margin. Operating margin decreased 3.2% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter. The decrease in operating margin was driven primarily by 430 basis points due to higher expenses, including higher advertising costs, store labor costs and separation charges, 90 basis points from the impact of newly acquired businesses and 30 basis points for each of higher markdowns and unfavorable currency impact, partially offset by 190 basis points from a gain on the sales of assets, 80 basis points from higher initial markups and 60 basis points from the favorable impact of higher revenues. Excluding the impacts of transaction costs, separation charges, asset impairment charges, certain professional service and legal fees and related (credits) costs, net gains on lease modifications and gain on the sale of assets, our operating margin would have decreased 4.6% compared to the same prior-year quarter.

Earnings from Operations. As a result of the foregoing, earnings from operations decreased by $17 million for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to the same prior-year quarter. Currency fluctuations relating to our foreign operations unfavorably impacted earnings from operations by $3 million, including $4 million of unfavorable translational impact, partially offset by an immaterial amount of favorable transactional impact.

Other Expense, Net. Other expense, net for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 was $40 million compared to $5 million in the same prior-year quarter. The change was primarily due to the fair value remeasurement of derivatives related to our 2028 Notes and the related convertible note hedge resulting in a net unrealized loss of $40 million during the second quarter of fiscal 2025, partially offset by lower net unrealized losses from foreign currency exposures, compared to the same prior-year quarter.

Income Tax Expense. Income tax expense for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 was $12 million, or a 373.9% effective income tax rate, compared to $15 million, or a 26.5% effective income tax rate in the same prior-year quarter. Income tax expense for the interim periods is computed using the income tax rate estimated to be applicable for the full fiscal year, adjusted for discrete items, which is subject to ongoing review and evaluation by management. The change in the effective income tax rate was primarily due to lower pre-tax income as well as the discrete items, compared to the same prior-year quarter.

The Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”) Pillar 2 guidelines address the increasing digitalization of the global economy, re-allocating taxing rights among countries. The European Union, many other member states and various other governments have adopted, or are in the process of adopting, Pillar 2, which calls for a global minimum tax of 15% to be effective for tax years beginning in 2024. The OECD guidelines published to date include transition and safe harbor rules around the implementation of the Pillar 2 global minimum tax. We are monitoring developments and evaluating the impacts these new rules will have on our tax rate, including eligibility to qualify for these safe harbor rules.

Net Earnings (Loss) Attributable to Guess?, Inc. Net loss attributable to Guess?, Inc. was $11 million for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to net earnings of $39 million in the same prior-year quarter. Diluted net loss per share was $0.28 for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to diluted EPS of $0.59 in the same prior-year quarter. We estimate a minimal impact from our share buybacks and a positive impact from currency of $0.01 on diluted EPS in the quarter ended August 3, 2024 when compared to the same prior-year quarter.

Refer to “Non-GAAP Measures” for an overview of our non-GAAP, or adjusted, financial results for the quarters ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023. Excluding the impact of these non-GAAP items, adjusted net earnings attributable to Guess?, Inc. decreased $17 million and adjusted diluted EPS decreased $0.30 for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, compared to the same prior-year quarter. We estimate a positive impact from our share buybacks of $0.01 and a positive impact from currency of $0.01 on adjusted diluted EPS in the quarter ended August 3, 2024 when compared to the same prior-year quarter.

Europe

Net revenue from our Europe segment increased by $17 million, or 5%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter. Currency translation fluctuations unfavorably impacted net revenue by $12 million. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 8%. The increase in net revenue in constant currency was driven mainly by $12 million due to higher wholesale revenue, $8 million due to positive retail comparable sales and $4 million each from newly acquired businesses and e-commerce. Retail comparable sales (including e-commerce) increased 1% in U.S. dollars and 4% in constant currency compared to the same prior-year quarter. The inclusion of our e-commerce sales had a positive impact on the retail comparable sales percentage of 1% in U.S. dollars and a minimal amount in constant currency. Our retail sales in Turkey, a relatively small market, had an outsized impact on our retail comparable sales (including e-commerce) for the quarter ended August 3, 2024, contributing a positive impact of 1% in U.S. dollars and 3% in constant currency, largely due to the current hyper-inflationary environment in Turkey. As of August 3, 2024, we directly operated 555 stores in Europe compared to 546 stores at July 29, 2023, excluding concessions, which represents a 2% increase from the same prior-year quarter.

Operating margin decreased 3.1% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter. The decrease in operating margin was driven primarily by 360 basis points of higher expenses, including advertising expenses, 70 basis points from higher markdowns and 50 basis points from unfavorable currency impacts, partially offset by a 120 basis point impact of higher revenues as well as 90 basis points from higher initial markups.

Earnings from operations from our Europe segment decreased by $10 million, or 21%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter. The decrease was mainly driven by $14 million from higher expenses, including advertising expenses, and $3 million each from unfavorable currency impacts and higher markdowns, including $4 million of unfavorable translation impact, partially offset by $8 million from higher revenues and $4 million of higher initial markups.

Americas Retail

Net revenue from our Americas Retail segment increased by $14 million, or 8%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter. Currency translation fluctuations relating to our non-U.S. retail stores and e-commerce sites unfavorably impacted net revenue by $1 million. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 9% compared to the same prior-year quarter. The net revenue increase in constant currency was driven by $32 million due to newly acquired businesses, partially offset by $13 million due to negative comparable store sales. Retail comparable sales (including e-commerce) decreased 10% in both U.S. dollars and constant currency compared to the same prior-year quarter. The inclusion of our e-commerce sales had a positive impact on the retail comparable sales percentage of 1% in both U.S. dollars and constant currency. As of August 3, 2024, we directly operated 406 stores in the Americas compared to 364 stores at July 29, 2023, excluding concessions, which represents a 12% increase from the same prior-year quarter, mainly driven by the acquisition of the rag & bone stores.

Operating margin decreased 7.6% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter. Approximately 390 basis points of the decrease was driven by the unfavorable impact of lower revenues, 230 basis points from higher expenses and 160 basis points from the impact of newly acquired businesses, partially offset by 120 basis points from higher initial markups.

Earnings from operations from our Americas Retail segment decreased by $13 million, or 82%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter. The decrease was primarily driven by $7 million due to lower revenues, $4 million due to higher expenses and $1 million from the impact of newly acquired businesses, partially offset by $2 million from higher initial markups.

Americas Wholesale

Net revenue from our Americas Wholesale segment increased by $41 million, or 93%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter. Currency translation fluctuations relating to our non-U.S. wholesale businesses had a minimal impact on net revenue. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 94%. The increase in net revenues in constant currency was mainly driven by $26 million due to newly acquired businesses as well as $15 million due to higher wholesale shipments in the U.S. and Mexico.

Operating margin decreased 6.4% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter. The decrease in operating margin was mainly driven by 930 basis points from the impact of newly acquired businesses, partially offset by 310 basis points from higher wholesale shipments.

Earnings from operations from our Americas Wholesale segment increased by $5 million, or 44%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter, mainly driven by higher wholesale shipments.

Asia

Net revenue from our Asia segment decreased by $5 million, or 8%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter. Currency translation fluctuations unfavorably impacted net revenue by $2 million. In constant currency, net revenue decreased by 4%, mainly driven by $6 million from negative comparable store sales, mainly in Korea and China, partially offset by $2 million due to newly acquired businesses. Retail comparable sales (including e-commerce) decreased 14% in U.S. dollars and 10% in constant currency compared to the same prior-year quarter. The inclusion of our e-commerce sales negatively impacted the retail comparable sales percentage by 1% in both U.S. dollars and constant currency.

Operating margin decreased 1.4% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter, driven primarily by 280 basis points of higher expenses and 150 basis points from lower revenues, partially offset by 150 basis points from higher product margins and 140 basis points due to newly acquired businesses.

Loss from operations from our Asia segment decreased by $1 million, or 127.1%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 driven by decreases of $2 million from higher expenses and $1 million from lower revenues, partially offset by $1 million each from higher product margins and the impact of newly acquired businesses. Currency translation fluctuations relating to our Asia operations had a minimal impact on loss from operations.

Licensing

Net royalty revenue from our Licensing segment increased by $1 million, or 4%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter, mainly driven by higher royalties in our footwear and fragrance categories as well as the key money amortization for our handbag license renewal.

Earnings from operations from our Licensing segment increased by 3% for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year quarter primarily driven by the increase in revenues.

Corporate Overhead

Unallocated corporate overhead increased by $11 million, or 32%, for the quarter ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year quarter, primarily due to higher advertising expenses, higher legal and professional fees as well as higher separation charges.

Six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023

Net Revenue. Net revenue increased by $90 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. Currency translation fluctuations relating to our non-U.S. operations unfavorably impacted net revenue by $33 million compared to the same prior-year period. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 10%. The increase in constant currency was mainly driven by $87 million due to the impact of the rag & bone acquisition, and $34 million due to higher wholesale shipments.

Gross Margin. Gross margin increased 0.3% for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period, driven by 70 basis points due to higher initial markups and 40 basis points from higher revenues, partially offset by 50 basis points due to higher expenses, including higher store occupancy costs, and 10 basis points of unfavorable currency impact.

Gross Profit. Gross profit increased by $42 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. The increase in gross profit was driven by $36 million due to the impact of newly acquired businesses, $15 million due to higher wholesale shipments and $10 million due to higher initial markups, partially offset by $15 million of unfavorable currency impact. Distribution costs, including labor, inbound freight charges, purchasing costs and related overhead, related to supplying inventory to store locations within our retail business are included in cost of product sales. We also include net royalties received on our inventory purchases of licensed product as a reduction to cost of product sales. We generally exclude wholesale-related distribution costs from gross margin, including them instead in SG&A expenses. Additionally, we include retail store occupancy costs in cost of product sales. As a result, our gross margin may not be comparable to that of other entities. To ensure expenses are separated appropriately, we track activities at each distribution center location and record the costs associated with our shipments of goods either as cost of sales or as selling, general and administrative expenses, accordingly.

SG&A Rate. Our SG&A rate increased 4.1% for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period. The unfavorable change in SG&A rate was mainly driven by 440 basis points due to higher expenses, including advertising expenses, transaction costs and separation charges, and 40 basis points of unfavorable currency impact, partially offset by 70 basis points due to higher revenues.

SG&A Expenses. SG&A expenses increased by $89 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period. The increase in SG&A expenses was mainly driven by $59 million of higher expenses, including advertising expenses, and $36 million due to the impact of newly acquired businesses. Currency translation fluctuations relating to our foreign operations favorably impacted SG&A expenses by $7 million.

Asset Impairment Charges. During the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, we recognized $3 million and $5 million, respectively, of property and equipment and operating lease ROU asset impairment charges related to certain retail locations resulting from under-performance and expected store closures.

Net Gains on Lease Modifications. There were no net gains on lease modifications during the six months ended August 3, 2024. During the six months ended July 29, 2023, we recorded net gains on lease modifications of $2 million, related primarily to the early termination of lease agreements for certain retail locations.

Gain on Sale of Assets. There was a $14 million gain on the sale of assets resulting from the sale of the U.S. distribution center during the six months ended August 3, 2024.

Operating Margin. Operating margin decreased 3.1% for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. The decrease in operating margin was driven primarily by 480 basis points of higher expenses, including advertising expenses, transaction costs and separation charges, and 50 basis points of unfavorable currency impact, partially offset by 100 basis points from the gain on the sale of assets, 120 basis points from higher revenues and 70 basis points from higher initial markups. Excluding the impacts of transaction costs, separation charges, asset impairment charges, certain professional service and legal fees and related (credits) costs, net gains on lease modifications and gain on the sale of assets, our operating margin would have decreased 3.1% compared to the same prior-year period.

Earnings from Operations. As a result of the foregoing, earnings from operations decreased by $36 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. Currency fluctuations relating to our foreign operations unfavorably impacted earnings from operations by $8 million, including $7 million of unfavorable translational impact.

Loss on Extinguishment of Debt. During the six months ended August 3, 2024, we recorded a loss of $2 million related to the partial extinguishment of our 2024 Notes, compared to a loss of $8 million during the six months ended July 29, 2023.

Other Expense, Net. Other expense, net for the six months ended August 3, 2024 was $4 million compared to $7 million in the same prior-year period. The change was primarily due to lower net unrealized and realized losses from foreign currency exposures compared to the same prior-year period.

Income Tax Expense. Income tax expense for the six months ended August 3, 2024 was $7 million, or a 49.4% effective income tax rate, compared to $13 million, or a 29.2% effective income tax rate in the same prior-year period. Income tax expense for the interim periods is computed using the income tax rate estimated to be applicable for the full fiscal year, adjusted for discrete items, which is subject to ongoing review and evaluation by management. The change in the effective income tax rate was primarily due to lower pre-tax income as well as the discrete items, compared to the same prior-year period.

The Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”) Pillar 2 guidelines address the increasing digitalization of the global economy, re-allocating taxing rights among countries. The European Union, many other member states and various other governments have adopted, or are in the process of adopting, Pillar 2, which calls for a global minimum tax of 15% to be effective for tax years beginning in 2024. The OECD guidelines published to date include transition and safe harbor rules around the implementation of the Pillar 2 global minimum tax. We are monitoring developments and evaluating the impacts these new rules will have on our tax rate, including eligibility to qualify for these safe harbor rules.

Net Earnings Attributable to Guess?, Inc. Net earnings attributable to Guess?, Inc. decreased $25 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. Diluted EPS decreased $0.42 for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. We estimate a positive impact from share buybacks of $0.01 and a negative impact from currency of $0.06 on diluted EPS in the six months ended August 3, 2024 when compared to the same prior-year period.

Refer to “Non-GAAP Measures” for an overview of our non-GAAP, or adjusted, financial results for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023. Excluding the impact of these non-GAAP items, adjusted net earnings attributable to Guess?, Inc. decreased $27 million and adjusted diluted EPS decreased $0.49 for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. We estimate a positive impact from our share buybacks of $0.01 and a negative impact from currency of $0.07 on adjusted diluted EPS in the six months ended August 3, 2024 when compared to the same prior-year period.

Europe

Net revenue from our Europe segment increased by $21 million, or 3%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period. Currency translation fluctuations had an unfavorable impact on net revenue of $29 million. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 8%. The increase in net revenue in constant currency was mainly driven by increases of $22 million due to positive retail comparable sales, $16 million of higher wholesale shipments and $6 million due to newly acquired businesses. Retail comparable sales (including e-commerce) increased 2% in U.S. dollars and 6% in constant currency compared to the same prior-year period. The inclusion of our e-commerce sales had a minimal impact on the retail comparable sales percentage in U.S. dollars and a negative impact of 1% in constant currency. Our retail sales in Turkey, a relatively small market, had an outsized impact on our retail comparable sales (including e-commerce) for the six months ended August 3, 2024, contributing a positive impact of 1% in U.S. dollars and 4% in constant currency, largely due to the current hyper-inflationary environment in Turkey. As of August 3, 2024, we directly operated 555 stores in Europe compared to 546 stores at July 29, 2023, excluding concessions, which represents a 2% increase from the same prior-year period.

Operating margin decreased 2.0% for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period. The decrease in operating margin was driven primarily by 360 basis points of higher expenses, including advertising expenses, and 110 basis points of unfavorable currency impact, partially offset by 220 basis points due to the favorable impact of higher revenues and 100 basis points from higher initial markups.

Earnings from operations from our Europe segment decreased by $12 million, or 24%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. The decrease in operating profit was mainly driven by $25 million of higher expenses and $9 million of unfavorable currency impact, partially offset by $19 million due to the favorable impact of higher revenues and $7 million from higher initial markups

Americas Retail

Net revenue from our Americas Retail segment increased by $15 million, or 5%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. Currency translation fluctuations relating to our non-U.S. retail stores and e-commerce sites had a minimal impact on net revenue. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 5% compared to the same prior-year period. The increase in net revenue in constant currency was primarily driven by $42 million due to newly acquired businesses, partially offset by $23 million of lower comparable store sales and $6 million due to net store closures. Retail comparable sales (including e-commerce) decreased 9% in both U.S. dollars and constant currency compared to the same prior-year period. The inclusion of our e-commerce sales had a positive impact of 1% on the retail comparable sales percentage in both U.S. dollars and constant currency. As of August 3, 2024, we directly operated 406 stores in the Americas compared to 364 stores at July 29, 2023, excluding concessions, which represents a 12% increase from the same prior-year period, mainly driven by the acquisition of the rag & bone stores.

Operating margin decreased 6.2% for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. The decrease was driven primarily by 420 basis points from the unfavorable impact of lower revenues and 270 basis points from higher expenses, including store costs, partially offset by 100 basis points from higher initial markups.

Loss from operations from our Americas Retail segment was $8 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to earnings of $12 million in the same prior-year period. The change was primarily driven by $13 million due to lower revenues and $9 million of higher expenses, including higher store costs, partially offset by $3 million due to higher initial markups.

Americas Wholesale

Net revenue from our Americas Wholesale segment increased by $51 million, or 54%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period. Currency translation fluctuations relating to our non-U.S. wholesale businesses had a favorable impact on net revenue of $1 million. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 53%. The increase in net revenues in constant currency was driven by $36 million due to newly acquired businesses and $15 million of higher shipments in our U.S. and Mexico wholesale businesses.

Operating margin decreased 4.9% for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period. The decrease in operating margin was driven primarily by 640 basis points from the impact of newly acquired businesses and 100 basis points of higher expenses, partially offset by 160 basis points from higher shipments.

Earnings from operations from our Americas Wholesale segment increased by $6 million, or 25%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period, mainly driven by a $6 million favorable impact of higher revenues, partially offset by $1 million of higher expenses.

Asia

Net revenue from our Asia segment decreased by $3 million, or 2%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period. Currency translation fluctuations had an unfavorable impact on net revenue of $5 million. In constant currency, net revenue increased by 2%. The increase in net revenue in constant currency was mainly driven by increases of $3 million each from higher e-commerce revenues, higher wholesale shipments and the impact of newly acquired businesses, partially offset by $6 million of lower retail comparable sales, mainly in Korea and China. Retail comparable sales (including e-commerce) decreased 12% in U.S. dollars and 8% in constant currency compared to the same prior-year period. The inclusion of our e-commerce sales had a minimal impact on the retail comparable sales percentage by in both U.S. dollars and constant currency.

Operating margin decreased 0.5% for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period, driven primarily by 80 basis points due to the unfavorable impact of higher expenses and 50 basis points of lower product margins, partially offset by 80 basis points from the impact of newly acquired businesses.

Earnings from operations from our Asia segment decreased by $1 million, or 24%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period, mainly driven by $1 million from each the unfavorable impact of higher expenses and lower product margin, partially offset by $1 million from the impact of newly acquired businesses. Currency translation fluctuations relating to our Asia operations favorably impacted earnings from operations by less than $1 million.

Licensing

Net royalty revenue from our Licensing segment increased by $6 million, or 12%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period, mainly driven by higher royalties in our fragrance and footwear categories as well as the key money amortization for our handbag license renewal.

Earnings from operations from our Licensing segment increased by $5 million, or 11%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period primarily driven by the increase in revenues.

Corporate Overhead

Unallocated corporate overhead increased by $27 million, or 38%, for the six months ended August 3, 2024 from the same prior-year period, primarily due to higher expenses, in particular advertising expenses and higher professional fees as well as higher separation charges and transaction costs .

Non-GAAP Measures

The financial information presented in this Quarterly Report includes non-GAAP financial measures, such as adjusted net earnings attributable to Guess?, adjusted diluted net earnings per share attributable to common stockholders and constant currency information. For the three and six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, the adjusted results exclude the impact of certain professional service and legal fees and related (credits) costs, transaction costs in connection with our acquisition of rag & bone, separation charges related to the transition of the operations of our U.S. distribution center, gain on the sale of the U.S. distribution center and settlement of the related interest rate swap, asset impairment charges, net (gains) losses on lease modifications, loss on extinguishment of debt, non-cash amortization of debt discount of our convertible senior notes, fair value remeasurement of derivatives related to the 2028 Notes and the related convertible note hedge, the related income tax effects of the foregoing items and the impact from certain discrete income tax adjustments related primarily to the impact from changes in the income tax law in certain tax jurisdictions, in each case where applicable. The weighted average diluted shares outstanding used for adjusted diluted EPS excludes the dilutive impact of the Notes, based on the bond hedge contracts in place. These non-GAAP measures are provided in addition to, and not as alternatives for, our reported GAAP results.

These items affect the comparability of our reported results. The financial results are also presented on a non-GAAP basis, as defined in Section 10(e) of Regulation S-K of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), to exclude the effect of these items. We have excluded these items from our adjusted financial measures primarily because we believe these items are not indicative of the underlying performance of our business and the adjusted financial information provided is useful for investors to evaluate the comparability of our operating results and our future outlook (when reviewed in conjunction with our GAAP financial statements).

A reconciliation of reported GAAP results to comparable non-GAAP results follows (in thousands, except per share data):

Notes:

- ¹ Adjustments represent certain professional service and legal fees and related (credits) costs which we otherwise would not have incurred as part of our business operations.
- ² Adjustments represent transaction costs in connection with the rag & bone acquisition which we otherwise would not have incurred as part of our business operations.
- ³ Adjustments represent separation charges related to the transition of the operation of our U.S. distribution center, which was formerly owner-operated, to a third-party logistics provider.

- ⁴ Adjustments represent asset impairment charges related primarily to impairment of property and equipment related to certain retail locations resulting from under-performance and expected store closures.
- ⁵ Adjustments represent net gains on lease modifications related primarily to the early termination of certain lease agreements.
- ⁶ Adjustments represent loss on extinguishment of debt from a portion of the exchanged 2024 Notes in April 2023 and March 2024.
- ⁷ In April 2023, January 2024, and March 2024 we issued $275 million, $65 million and $12 million principal amount of 3.75% convertible senior notes due 2028 in private offerings, respectively. The debt discount resulted from: (1) the modification accounting for a portion of the exchanged 2024 Notes in April 2023, and (2) recognized embedded derivative liability for the issuances of the Additional 2028 Notes. The debt discount will be amortized as non-cash interest expense over the term of the 2028 Notes.
- ⁸ Adjustments represent changes in fair value of the equity-linked derivatives associated with the 2028 Notes.
- ⁹ Adjustments represent the gain on the sale of assets related to the U.S. distribution center within earnings from operations and the settlement of the related interest rate swap within other income (expense).
- ¹⁰ Adjustments represent discrete income tax items related primarily to the impact from changes in the income tax law in certain tax jurisdictions.
- ¹¹ The income tax effect of certain professional service and legal fees and related (credits) costs, transaction costs in connection with the acquisition of rag & bone, separation charges related to the transition of the operation of our U.S. distribution center, asset impairment charges, net gains on lease modifications, loss on extinguishment of debt and amortization of debt discount and gain on the sale of assets related to the U.S. distribution center and the settlement of the related interest rate swap was based on our assessment of deductibility using the statutory income tax rate (inclusive of the impact of valuation allowances) of the tax jurisdiction in which the charges were incurred.
- ¹² We exclude the dilutive impact of the Notes at stock prices below $41.08 for the 2024 Notes and below $37.76 for the 2028 Notes, based on the bond hedge contracts in place that will deliver shares to offset dilution. At stock prices in excess of $41.08 for the 2024 Notes and $37.76 for the 2028 Notes, we would have an obligation to deliver additional shares in excess of the dilution protection provided by the bond hedges.
- ¹³ Adjustments represent the potentially dilutive impact of outstanding stock options and restricted stock units which are not included in the computation of diluted net loss per share as the impact would be antidilutive.
- ¹⁴ Adjustments include the related income tax effect based on our assessment of deductibility using the statutory income tax rate (inclusive of the impact of valuation allowances) of the tax jurisdiction in which the charges were incurred.

Our discussion and analysis herein also includes certain constant currency financial information. Foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations affect the amount reported from translating our foreign revenue, expenses and balance sheet amounts into U.S. dollars. These rate fluctuations can have a significant effect on reported operating results under GAAP. We provide constant currency information to enhance the visibility of underlying business trends, excluding the effects of changes in foreign currency translation rates. To calculate net revenue, retail comparable sales and earnings (loss) from operations on a constant currency basis, operating results for the current-year period are translated into U.S. dollars at the average exchange rates in effect during the comparable period of the prior year. To calculate balance sheet amounts on a constant currency basis, the current period balance sheet amount is translated into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate in effect at the comparable prior-year period end. The constant currency calculations do not adjust for the impact of revaluing specific transactions denominated in a currency that is different from the functional currency of that entity when exchange rates fluctuate.

In calculating the estimated impact of currency fluctuations (including translational and transactional impacts) on other measures such as earnings (loss) per share, we estimate gross margin (including the impact of foreign exchange currency contracts designated as cash flow hedges for anticipated merchandise purchases) and expenses using the appropriate prior-year rates, translate the estimated foreign earnings (loss) at the comparable prior-year rates and consider the year-over-year earnings impact of gains or losses arising from balance sheet remeasurement and foreign exchange currency contracts not designated as cash flow hedges for merchandise purchases. The constant currency information presented may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We use our liquidity globally primarily to fund our working capital, occupancy costs, interest and principal payments on our debt, remodeling and rationalization of our retail stores, shop-in-shop programs, concessions, systems, infrastructure, compensation expenses, other existing operations, expansion plans, international growth and potential acquisitions and investments. Generally, our working capital needs are highest during the late summer and fall as our inventories increase before the holiday selling period. In addition, in the U.S., we need liquidity for payment of dividends to our stockholders and to fund share repurchases, if any.

During the six months ended August 3, 2024, we relied primarily on trade credit, available cash, real estate and other operating leases, finance leases, proceeds from our credit facilities and term loans and internally generated funds to finance our operations. We anticipate we will be able to satisfy our ongoing cash requirements for the foreseeable future, including at least the next 12 months, for working capital, capital expenditures, payments on our debt, finance leases and operating leases, as well as lease modification payments, potential acquisitions and investments, expected income tax payments, dividend payments to stockholders and share repurchases, if any, primarily with cash flow from operations and existing cash balances as supplemented by borrowings under our existing credit facilities, proceeds from our term loans and other indebtedness, as needed.

In May 2022, we entered into a €250 million revolving credit facility through a European subsidiary, which replaced certain European short-term borrowing arrangements. In June 2024, we amended the revolving credit facility to, among other things, expand the borrowing capacity under the credit agreement by €100 million to €350 million. As of August 3, 2024, we had approximately $201.9 million of remaining borrowing capacity on this facility. In December 2022, we entered into an amendment of our senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility, which increased borrowing capacity from $120 million to $150 million and extended the maturity date of the credit facility to December 20, 2027. In March 2024, we amended the senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility to increase the total borrowing capacity under the facility by $50 million to $200 million. As of August 3, 2024, we had approximately $176.2 million of borrowing capacity on this facility.

Due to the seasonality of our business and cash needs, we may increase borrowings under our established credit facilities or enter new credit facilities from time-to-time during the next 12 months and beyond. If we experience a sustained decrease in consumer demand, we may require access to additional credit, which may not be available to us on commercially acceptable terms or at all.

In March 2024, we issued approximately $12.1 million principal amount of the March Additional 2028 Notes in exchange for approximately $14.6 million of our outstanding 2024 Notes in a private offering. In April 2024, upon maturity of the 2024 Notes, we settled the remaining $33.5 million principal amount of our then-outstanding 2024 Notes. We expect to settle the 2028 Notes in fiscal 2029 in cash and any excess in shares. Our outstanding 2028 Notes may be converted at the option of the holders as described in “Part I, Item 1. Financial Statements – Note 11 – Convertible Senior Notes and Related Transactions” of this Form 10-Q and in “Note 10 – Convertible Senior Notes and Related Transactions” of the Consolidated Financial Statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K. As of August 3, 2024, none of the conditions allowing holders of the 2028 Notes to convert had been met. Pursuant to the terms of the 2028 Notes, if our stock trading price exceeds 130% of the conversion price of the 2028 Notes (approximately $22.31 for the 2028 Notes as of August 3, 2024) for at least 20 trading days during the 30 consecutive trading-day period ending on, and including, the last trading day of any calendar quarter, holders of the 2028 Notes would have the right to convert their convertible notes during the next calendar quarter. In accordance with the terms of the indentures governing the 2028 Notes, we are required to adjust the conversion rate and the conversion price of the 2028 Notes for quarterly dividends exceeding $0.225 per share. Upon conversion, we will pay or deliver, as the case may be, cash, shares of our common stock or a combination of cash and shares of our common stock, at our election, in the manner and subject to the terms and conditions provided in the indenture governing the 2028 Notes. The convertible note hedge transaction we entered into in connection with our issuance of the 2028 Notes is expected generally to reduce the potential dilution upon conversion of the 2028 Notes and/or offset any cash payments we are required to make in excess of the principal amount of the 2028 Notes that are converted, as the case may be.

We have historically considered the undistributed earnings of our foreign subsidiaries to be indefinitely reinvested. As a result of the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, we had a substantial amount of previously taxed earnings that could be distributed to the U.S. without additional U.S. taxation. As of August 3, 2024, we determined that approximately $64.2 million of such foreign earnings are not indefinitely reinvested. The incremental tax cost to repatriate these earnings to the U.S. is immaterial. We intend to indefinitely reinvest the remaining earnings from our foreign subsidiaries for which a deferred income tax liability has not already been recorded. We continue to evaluate our plans for reinvestment or repatriation of unremitted foreign earnings and regularly review our cash positions and determination of indefinite reinvestment of foreign earnings. If we determine that all or a portion of such foreign earnings are no longer indefinitely reinvested, we may be subject to additional foreign withholding taxes and U.S. state income taxes, beyond the one-time transition tax.

As of August 3, 2024, we had cash and cash equivalents of $218.9 million, of which approximately $30.9 million was held in the U.S. Excess cash and cash equivalents, which represent the majority of our outstanding balance, are held primarily in overnight deposit, short-term time deposit accounts and money market accounts. As of August 3, 2024, we had roughly $389 million of available global borrowing capacity, bringing our combined cash, cash equivalents and borrowing capacity to over $600 million. Please refer to “Forward-Looking Statements” discussed above and “Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors” contained in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 3, 2024 for a discussion of risk factors which could reasonably be likely to result in a decrease of internally generated funds available to finance capital expenditures and working capital requirements.

Six Months Ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023

Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities was $21.7 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024, compared to $47.3 million for the same prior-year period, or a deterioration of $25.5 million. This deterioration was driven primarily by lower cash earnings and unfavorable changes in working capital, partially offset by the upfront cash payment related to the handbag license renewal.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities was $60.9 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024, compared to $35.8 million for the same prior-year period. Net cash used in investing activities for the six months ended August 3, 2024 related primarily to our business acquisition, investments in existing store remodeling programs and retail expansion and, to a lesser extent, technology and other infrastructure, partially offset by the proceeds from the sale of our U.S. distribution center.

The increase in cash used in investing activities was driven primarily by our rag & bone acquisition during the six months ended August 3, 2024. During the six months ended August 3, 2024, we opened 26 directly-operated stores compared to ten directly-operated stores that were opened in the same prior-year period.

Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities was $95.4 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024, compared to net cash provided by financing activities of $13.3 million for the same prior-year period. The deterioration of $108.7 million was primarily due to the payment of a special cash dividend, repayments of convertible senior notes, lower proceeds from the exchange of convertible senior notes and related transactions, and higher share repurchases, partially offset by higher net borrowings during the six months ended August 3, 2024 compared to the same prior-year period.

Effect of Exchange Rates on Cash and Cash Equivalents and Restricted Cash

During the six months ended August 3, 2024, changes in foreign currency translation rates decreased our reported cash, cash equivalents and restricted cash balance by $5.4 million compared to an increase of $2.2 million during the same prior-year period. Refer to “Foreign Currency Volatility” for further information on fluctuations in exchange rates.

Working Capital

As of August 3, 2024, we had net working capital (including cash and cash equivalents) of $400.3 million compared to $433.9 million at February 3, 2024 and $402.8 million at July 29, 2023. Our primary working capital needs are for payments for inventories, salaries and wages, and the current portion of lease liabilities.

The accounts receivable balance consists of trade receivables relating primarily to our wholesale business in Europe and, to a lesser extent, to our wholesale businesses in the Americas and Asia, royalty receivables relating to our licensing operations, credit card and retail concession receivables related to our retail businesses and certain other receivables. Accounts receivable increased by $13.7 million, or 4.3%, to $332.0 million as of August 3, 2024, from $318.4 million at July 29, 2023. On a constant currency basis, accounts receivable increased by $21.7 million, or 6.8%, when compared to July 29, 2023. The increase was driven by our rag & bone acquisition. As of August 3, 2024, approximately 46% of our total net trade receivables and 65% of our European net trade receivables were subject to credit insurance coverage, certain bank guarantees or letters of credit for collection purposes. Our credit insurance coverage contains certain terms and conditions specifying deductibles and annual claim limits.

Inventory increased by $48.8 million, or 8.8%, to $603.3 million as of August 3, 2024, from $554.4 million at July 29, 2023. On a constant currency basis, inventory increased by $61.2 million, or 11.0%, when compared to July 29, 2023, driven primarily by our rag & bone acquisition.

Capital Expenditures

Gross capital expenditures totaled $41.5 million, before deducting lease incentives of $1.5 million, for the six months ended August 3, 2024. This compares to gross capital expenditures of $34.8 million for the same prior-year period.

We will periodically evaluate strategic opportunities and pursue those we believe will support and contribute to our overall growth initiatives and/or will leverage our global infrastructure and network of licensees and wholesale partners.

Dividends

On March 20, 2024, we announced a special cash dividend of $2.25 per share on our common stock in addition to a regular quarterly cash dividend of $0.30 per share. The dividends were paid on May 3, 2024 to shareholders of record as of the close of business on April 17, 2024.

On August 28, 2024, we announced a regular quarterly cash dividend of $0.30 per share on our common stock. The cash dividend will be paid on September 27, 2024 to shareholders of record as of the close of business on September 11, 2024. As a result of this dividend declaration and in accordance with the terms of the indenture governing the 2028 Notes, we will adjust the conversion rate (which is expected to increase) and the conversion price (which is expected to decrease) of the 2028 Notes, effective as of September 11, 2024. A downward adjustment is also expected to be made to the strike prices of the convertible note hedges and the warrants entered into in connection with the 2028 Notes, each of which will be decreased in accordance with the terms of the applicable convertible note hedge confirmations and warrant confirmations.

Decisions on whether, when and in what amounts to continue making any future dividend distributions will remain at all times entirely at the discretion of our Board of Directors, which reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change or terminate our dividend practices at any time and for any reason without prior notice. The payment of cash dividends in the future will be based upon a number of business, legal and other considerations, including changes in our financial position, capital allocation plans (including a desire to retain or accumulate cash), capital spending plans, stock purchase plans, acquisition strategies, strategic initiatives, debt payment plans (including a desire to maintain or improve credit ratings on our debt securities), debt covenant requirements, pension funding or other benefits payments.

Share Repurchases

During fiscal 2022, the Board of Directors authorized a $200 million share repurchase program (the “2021 Share Repurchase Program”). On March 14, 2022, the Board of Directors expanded its repurchase authorization by $100 million. As of February 3, 2024, there was no remaining authority under the 2021 Share Repurchase Program to purchase our common stock.

On March 25, 2024, the Board of Directors authorized a $200 million share repurchase program (the “2024 Share Repurchase Program”). Repurchases may be made on the open market or in privately negotiated transactions, pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 trading plans or other available means. There is no minimum or maximum number of shares to be repurchased under the program and the program may be discontinued at any time without prior notice.

During the six months ended August 3, 2024, we repurchased 2.6 million shares under our 2024 Share Repurchase Program at an aggregate cost of $60.8 million, including excise tax, 0.3 million shares of which were repurchased through broker assisted market transactions in connection with the exchange of 2024 Notes for March Additional 2028 Notes. During the six months ended July 29, 2023, we repurchased 2.2 million shares under our 2021 Share Repurchase Program at an aggregate cost of $42.8 million, including excise tax. These shares were repurchased through broker assisted market transactions in connection with the exchange and subscription offering related to the 2024 Notes and the Initial 2028 Notes. As of August 3, 2024, we had remaining authority under the 2024 Share Repurchase Program to purchase $139.8 million of our common stock.

Borrowings and Finance Lease Obligations and Convertible Senior Notes

In April 2023, we issued $275 million aggregate principal amount of Initial 2028 Notes and retired approximately $184.9 million aggregate principal of 2024 Notes in a private offering. In January 2024, we issued $64.8 million principal amount of January Additional 2028 Notes in exchange for $67.1 million of 2024 Notes in a private offering. In March 2024, we issued $12.1 million principal amount of March Additional 2028 Notes in exchange for $14.6 million of 2024 Notes in a private offering. Immediately following the closing of the March 2024 transaction, $33.5 million in aggregate principal amount of the 2024 Notes remained outstanding, which were settled in April 2024 upon maturity of the 2024 Notes. Refer to “Part I, Item 1. Financial Statements – Note 11 – Convertible Senior Notes and Related Transactions” in this Form 10-Q for disclosures about our convertible senior notes and related transactions.

In addition, refer to “Part I, Item 1. Financial Statements – Note 10 – Borrowings and Finance Lease Obligations” in this Form 10-Q for disclosures about our borrowings and finance lease obligations.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

As a non-qualified pension plan, no dedicated funding of our SERP is required; however, we have made periodic payments into insurance policies held in a rabbi trust to fund the expected obligations arising under the non-qualified SERP.

The cash surrender values of the insurance policies were $64.7 million and $63.4 million as of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, respectively, and were included in other assets in our condensed consolidated balance sheets. As a result of changes in the value of the insurance policy investments, we recorded unrealized gains of $2.5 million and $2.2 million in other income (expense) during the three and six months ended August 3, 2024, respectively, and immaterial unrealized gains in other income (expense) during each of the three and six months ended July 29, 2023, respectively. The projected benefit obligation was $37.7 million as of each of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, and was included in accrued expenses and other current liabilities and other long-term liabilities in our condensed consolidated balance sheets depending on the expected timing of payments. SERP benefit payments of $0.5 million were made during each of the three months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023. SERP benefit payments of $1.0 million were made during each of the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023.

Material Cash Requirements

As of August 3, 2024, except as disclosed above, there were no material changes to our material cash requirements from known contractual and other obligations, including commitments for capital expenditures, outside the ordinary course of business compared to the disclosures included under “Liquidity and Capital Resources - Material Cash Requirements” in Part II, Item 7 in our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 3, 2024. Refer to “Part I, Item 1. Financial Statements – Note 10 – Borrowings and Finance Lease Obligations” and “Part I, Item 1. Financial Statements – Note 11 – Convertible Senior Notes and Related Transactions” for further information.

Application of Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our critical accounting policies reflecting our estimates and judgments are described in “Part II, Item 7. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations,” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 3, 2024 filed with the SEC on April 1, 2024. There have been no significant changes to our critical accounting policies since the filing of our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Recently Issued Accounting Guidance

Refer to “Part I, Item 1. Financial Statements – Note 1 – Basis of Presentation” for disclosures about recently issued and adopted accounting guidance.

ITEM 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

Exchange Rate Risk

Approximately three-quarters of product sales recorded for the six months ended August 3, 2024 were denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar. Our primary exchange rate risk relates to operations in Europe, Canada, South Korea, China, Hong Kong and Mexico. Changes in currencies affect our earnings in various ways. For further discussion on currency-related risk, please refer to our risk factors under “Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors” contained in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 3, 2024.

Foreign Currency Transaction Gains and Losses

Transaction gains and losses that arise from exchange rate fluctuations on transactions denominated in a currency other than the functional currency, including gains and losses on foreign exchange currency contracts (see below), are included in the condensed consolidated statements of income (loss). Net realized and unrealized foreign currency transaction losses of $5.3 million and $0.9 million were included in the determination of net earnings (loss) for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, respectively.

Derivative Instruments Not Designated as Hedging Instruments

We also have foreign exchange currency contracts that are not designated as hedging instruments for accounting purposes. Changes in fair value of foreign exchange currency contracts not designated as hedging instruments are reported in net earnings (loss) as part of other income (expense). We recorded net losses of $0.4 million and $0.5 million for the six months ended August 3, 2024 and July 29, 2023, respectively, for our euro dollar foreign currency contracts not designated as hedges, which was included in other income (expense). As of August 3, 2024, we had euro foreign exchange currency contracts to purchase $114.0 million expected to mature over the next 13 months. As of August 3, 2024, the net unrealized gain of these open forward contracts recorded in our consolidated balance sheet was approximately $0.1 million.

We have recognized equity-linked derivatives including the embedded derivative associated with the Additional 2028 Notes. In connection with the 2028 Notes, we also purchased convertible note hedges which did not qualify for the derivative scope exception for equity-linked instruments. These derivatives are not designated as hedging instruments for accounting purposes. Changes in fair value of these derivatives are reported in net earnings (loss) as part of other income (expense).

Contract Sensitivity Analysis

As of August 3, 2024, a sensitivity analysis of changes in foreign currencies when measured against the U.S. dollar indicates that, if the U.S. dollar had uniformly weakened by 10% against all of the U.S. dollar denominated foreign exchange derivatives totaling $259.0 million, the fair value of the instruments would have decreased by $28.8 million. Conversely, if the U.S. dollar uniformly strengthened by 10% against all of the U.S. dollar denominated foreign exchange derivatives, the fair value of these instruments would have increased by $23.5 million. Any resulting changes in the fair value of the hedged instruments may be partially offset by changes in the fair value of certain balance sheet positions (primarily U.S. dollar denominated liabilities in our foreign operations) impacted by the change in the foreign currency rate. The ability to reduce the exposure of currencies on earnings depends on the magnitude of the derivatives compared to the balance sheet positions during each reporting cycle.

The fair values of the equity-linked derivatives are measured using a binomial lattice model utilizing unobservable inputs (e.g. the expected volatility and instrument specific credit spread). As of August 3, 2024, if the expected volatility was increased to 40%, keeping all other inputs constant, the fair value of the embedded derivative would increase from $18.9 million to $24.4 million and the fair value of the convertible note hedge would increase from $86.4 million to $111.7 million. If the expected volatility was decreased to 20%, the fair value of the embedded derivative would decrease from $18.9 million to $13.2 million and the fair value of the convertible note hedge would decrease from $86.4 million to $60.3 million. If the credit spread increased from 2.7% to 3.7%, keeping all other inputs constant, the fair value of the embedded derivative would increase from $18.9 million to $19.7 million and the fair value of the convertible note hedge would increase from $86.4 million to $90.0 million. If the credit spread decreased from 2.7% to 1.7%, the fair value of the embedded derivative would decrease from $18.9 million to $18.1 million and the fair value of the convertible note hedge would decrease from $86.4 million to $82.8 million.

Interest Rate Risk

We are exposed to interest rate risk on its floating-rate debt. From time to time, we may enter into interest rate swap agreements to effectively convert its floating-rate debt to a fixed-rate basis. The principal objective is to eliminate or reduce the variability of the cash flows in interest payments associated with our floating-rate debt, thus reducing the impact of interest rate changes on future interest payment cash flows. We have elected to apply the hedge accounting rules in accordance with authoritative guidance for certain of these contracts.

As of August 3, 2024, we had borrowings under our credit facility arrangements of $206.1 million which are based on variable rates of interest. Accordingly, changes in interest rates would impact our results of operations in future periods. A 100 basis point increase in interest rates would not have had a significant effect on interest expense for the six months ended August 3, 2024.

In April 2023, we issued $275 million aggregate principal amount of Initial 2028 Notes and retired approximately $184.9 million aggregate principal of 2024 Notes in a private offering. In January 2024, we issued $64.8 million principal amount of January Additional 2028 Notes in exchange for $67.1 million of 2024 Notes in a private offering. In March 2024, we issued $12.1 million principal amount of March Additional 2028 Notes in exchange for $14.6 million of 2024 Notes in a private offering. Immediately following the closing of the March 2024 transaction, $33.5 million in aggregate principal amount of the 2024 Notes remained outstanding, which were settled upon maturity in April 2024. The fair value of the 2028 Notes and the equity-linked derivatives associated with the 2028 Notes are subject to interest rate risk, market risk and other factors due to the conversion feature of the 2028 Notes. The fair value of the 2028 Notes and the equity-linked derivatives will generally increase as our common stock price increases and will generally decrease as our common stock price declines. Changes in fair value of the equity-linked derivatives impact our financial position and results of operations. The interest and market value changes affect the fair value of the 2028 Notes but do not impact our corresponding financial position, cash flows or results of operations due to the fixed nature of the debt obligation.

The fair values of our debt instruments are based on the amount of future cash flows associated with each instrument discounted using our incremental borrowing rate. As of August 3, 2024 and February 3, 2024, the carrying value was not materially different from fair value, as the interest rates on our debt approximated rates currently available to us. The fair value of the Notes is determined based on inputs that are observable in the market and have been classified as Level 2 in the fair value hierarchy.

ITEM 4. Controls and Procedures.

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, we conducted an evaluation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as such term is defined under Rule 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Based on this evaluation, our principal executive officer and our principal financial officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the quarterly period covered by this report.

There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting during the second quarter of fiscal 2025 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. Legal Proceedings.

Refer to “Part I, Item 1. Financial Statements – Note 14 – Commitments and Contingencies” in this Form 10-Q for disclosures about our legal and other proceedings.

ITEM 1A. Risk Factors.

There have not been any material changes in the Risk Factors as previously disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended February 3, 2024 filed with the SEC on April 1, 2024.

ITEM 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

Items (a) and (b) are not applicable.

Item (c). Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities

Our share repurchases during each fiscal month of the second quarter of fiscal 2025 were as follows:

Period	Total Number of Shares Purchased	Average Price Paid per Share	Total Number of Shares Purchased as Part of Publicly Announced Plans or Programs	Maximum Number (or Approximate Dollar Value) of Shares That May Yet Be Purchased Under the Plans or Programs

Notes:

¹ On March 25, 2024, the Board of Directors authorized a new $200 million share repurchase program (the “2024 Share Repurchase Program”). Repurchases may be made on the open market or in privately negotiated transactions, pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 trading plans or other available means. There is no minimum or maximum number of shares to be repurchased under the program and the program may be discontinued at any time, without prior notice.

² Consists of shares surrendered to, or withheld by, us in satisfaction of employee tax withholding obligations that occur upon vesting of restricted stock awards granted under our 2004 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended.

I, Carlos Alberini, certify that:

1. I have reviewed this quarterly report on Form 10-Q of Guess?, Inc.;
2. Based on my knowledge, this report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading with respect to the period covered by this report;
3. Based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included in this report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the registrant as of, and for, the periods presented in this report;
4. The registrant's other certifying officer and I are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) and internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) for the registrant and have:
 - a) Designed such disclosure controls and procedures, or caused such disclosure controls and procedures to be designed under our supervision, to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this report is being prepared;
 - b) Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
 - c) Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and
 - d) Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an annual report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and
5. The registrant's other certifying officer and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of the registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):
 - a) All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and
 - b) Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.
